EXPECTED RUPTURE OF THE ARMISTICE.
 Mr. Myers, the messenger, arrived this morning at the Foreign Office, with dispatches from Lord Carhart, dated on the 30th ult. His Lordship was then at the headquarters of the allied armies, which had then received a formidable augmentation of strength. The armistice had been prolonged only to the 10th of this month, and hostilities were expected to commence immediately upon its expiration. It was also reported, when the messenger came away, that the six days previous notice had actually been given by the allies, and
