LIMERICK, OCTOBER 2.

et of a Letter from Hull, dated on Saturday o the way-bill of the Liverpool and Hull mail arrived here this morning, a note is annexed, s, that "Peace had been concluded between ca and this Country." I have seen various from Liverpool, some of them written after o'clock, which make no mention of such an ; but as the Post-office shuts at nine p. m. and ail does not depart until half past one in the ng, it is barely possible the intelligence may been received in the interim."

nce writing the above, I learn, on the authority assenger in the mail from Manchester, that a emen who arrived there in the Liverpool mail, aim, that when the coach left, the bells were g, and a great bustle was in the streets, in quence of the Embargo laid in America a few ago, having been taken off, and the basis of a y of Peace agreed to."
