The Lectures at the Cathedral will, for the ensuing six months, be delivered immediately after Divine Service, at 11 o'clock on the usual days.

Sunday last, the Lord Bishop of Limerick held an ordination in the Cathedral, when the Rev. Mr.
 Conyers, Rev. Mr. M'Kenna, and the Rev. Mr. Hyde were admitted into Priest's order; and Messrs.
 O'Grady, Hoare, Lloyd, Hawkins, and Sands, into Deacons.—The Rev. Mr. Hyde delivered a most suitable discourse on the occasion to a very crowded auditory.—The Rev. Mr. M'Kenna also preached an excellent Sermon in the Evening.

Monday last, at a General Meeting of the Proprietors

The conduct of our late worthy Chief Magistrate, Andrew Watson, Esq. has been highly approved, the sentiment is universal, and all ranks of our fellow Citizens have invariably expressed their approbation of his activity and perseverance in the arduous duties of his office for the preceding year:—We would enter more largely into encomium on his merits, but from the relative connexion which subsists with the Proprietors of this Chronicle, it may perhaps appear fulsome:—However our contemporaries have performed the pleasing part in their Journals; and at the request of the Minister, Church-warden, and Parishioners of St. Mary, we publish an Address to the Alderman, which declares their high opinion of his unremitting exertions.

The Right Hon. Lord and Lady Waterpark, and the Hon. the Misses Cavendish, are now on a visit at the hospitable mansion of Cooper Penrose, Esq.

Yesterday, Thomas Kenny, a porter employed in the Commissariat Department, without any previous apparent indisposition, fell down in the store, and expired.—An inquest was held on the body by the Mayor, verdict—"Died by the Visitation of God."

The Treasurer of the House of Industry yesterday received 5s. being a fine inflicted by the Rt. Worshipful Thomas F. Wilkinson, Esq. on a butcher for killing cattle in the market.—Also this day, 8s. a fine levied by his Worship, for a nuisance in John's-St.
