To the Parishioners of St. Mary's, Limerick. GENTLEMEN,

I have this Evening, unexpectedly, received your kind Address, for which accept my most grateful acknowledgments.

I confess, though highly I estimated the exalted situation of Chief Magietiste, to which I had the honor of being elected-yet, of the day on which I retired therefrom, finding I had dewired the confidence and approbation of my fellow City ens. I felt that pleasure which only arises from a onscio sness of having endeavoured to deserve it.

Having from my infancy wided in Limerick, (and mostly in your Parish,) I was invinced much was expected from ne, during my hayoralty;—if I have succeeded in ulfilling those expectations, I am more than compeniated in receiving such an Address from the worthy Gurate and respectable Prishioners of St. Mary's:

And am, GENTLEMEN, our faithful and obliged Friend and Servant, ANDREW WATSON.
