 odged, and, from the knowledge of this the most serious apprehensions were en-that and the neighbouring houses, in case r exploding. In the midst of this terror gentleman, whom we understand to be a of the Theatre Royal, with an intrepidity the highest eulogium, while the flames were the entire front of the next house, and marks of fire descending all around, entered l at different times, bore in his arms upndred and an half weight of gunpowder to afety. We hope that so meritorious an awarded with more solid proofs than mere ry exertion was made by the different Ines and several gentlemen;—our worthy and Sheriffs were particularly attentive and fire was not got under until five o'clock

Friday night, some villains set fire to the turf-house of Castletown Conyers, in this County, the property of Charles Conyers, Esq. whereby it was consumed—It was a fortunate circumstance that it was detached from the range of offices, or else those would have also become a prey to the flames. An increased Reward is offered in this day's Chronicle, now amounting to upwards of £500, for the persons concerned in a late deprecation on the dwelling-house of Mr. Conyers;—a Gentleman universally held in the highest estimation; one of the best of landlords, and whose Family have been remarkable for the kindest attention to the distresses and wants of the poor.
