The Crown Prince arrived at Hanover on the 10th instant, and immediately was waited upon by all the Authorities, who were proud to recognize an ally of their legitimate Sovereign once more in their dominion.

An idle report is circulated this day, that the Regent and some of his Ministers have disagreed, in consequence of the former not wishing to treat for Peace with Bonaparte, whilst the latter are anxious to have a treaty immediately gone into—The Emperor Alexander and our Regent are, it is said, of the same determination.

DUBLIN—NOVEMBER 29.

Most serious apprehensions are entertained for the safety of Kingston and Montreal. The American land force at Sacket's Harbour is at present 10,000.

The Roman Catholic Board met as usual on Saturday, Sir Thomas Esmonde, Bart. in the Chair, the only thing done, was the appointment of a Committee of seven, to prepare an answer to the late communications from Lord Donoughmore and Mr. Grattan, with a view to explain the mistakes which those distinguished personages had fallen into.

This day, pursuant to the order of the Court of King's Bench on Saturday, Mr. Magee was brought up for judgment, when he was sentenced to pay a fine to the King of five hundred pounds, to find sureties in the sum of two hundred and fifty pounds each, and to be imprisoned for the period of two years, to commence from the date of his first commitment.—Patriot.

As this country is circumstanced, it is important to be able to state, that the Court of King's Bench vigorously maintained their own dignity in the present instance, and inhibited any repetition of that language which, upon a former occasion, was endured, to the amazement of the public.—Cor.

LIMERICK—DEC. 1.

Monday last, the troops in this garrison, under the command of Major-General Darby, marched to the banks of the Canal, where they fired a feu de joye, in honor of the victories obtained by our illustrious Countryman Wellington, and of those by our Allies, in Germany; as also for the spirited exertions in Holland, whereby the Dutch provinces have thrown off Bonaparte's yoke.—The troops at Cork, Waterford, and Clonmel, also fired on Monday, for the late Victories.
