adequate, we hear it is intended that a Charity Sermon shall be preached on Sunday, the 19th Inst. in the Cathedral of this City, by a distinguished and exemplary Preacher—The various and daily demands attending this universal Charity, which embraces the wretched without distinction and is the only Asylum where the miserable Lunatic,—the desperate Maniac,—the unoffending Idiot, or the vicious Fool, can be kept from adding greater distresses to their poor Relatives, demands peculiar commiseration; and, it is hoped, at this season, when all Christians rejoice at the approaching festival, the liberality of the Public will meet the wishes of the Governors, by adding comfort to the Inmates of this Charity, which now exceed 200!—Every well-disposed Person is invited to inspect this Establishment, and examine the daily accounts thereof.

Saturday last, an Inquest was held at Killaloe by Thomas Sampson, Esq. Coroner, on the body of J.
Degan, who received a bullet wound in the knee on the 3d of October last, and a verdict of Accidental Death returned. This poor man was proceeding quietly about his business, when he received a wound from one of two parties who were quarrelling at some distance, which thus deprived him of existence

On Saturday last, a new Writ was ordered for the County Mayo.

The remains of the late much lamented Doctor Ronan, of Cork, whose melancholy decease was stated in last Saturday's publication, are interred in the family vault at Kilquane, near Parteen, in the County Clare, within one mile and a half of this City He was nephew of the late Stephen Simon Ronan, Esq. of Parteen.
