PUBLIC THANKS.

THE DIRECTORS of St. John's Charity School, with the most lively gratitude, beg leave to return their grateful acknowledgments to the Rev. P. HOGAN, for his excellent Sermon on Sunday last; to that truly worthy Nobleman Lord Viscount Glentworth, George Evans Bruce, Esq. Wm. Roche, Esq. Alderman Wilkinson, John Kelly, and John Kennedy, Esqrs. who so charitably advocated the Orphan Cause, as Collectors—to our liberal Protestant Brethren to the Musical Gentlemen Amateurs, and Mr. Corneley, for their powerful exertions on the occasion—to all the respectable Auditory who attended, and who so ably and generously contributed to the support of this Asylum, for the destitute Orphans of this City.

The Collectors will continue to receive the Donations of such as could not attend from the witness of the day; and the Collectors humbly solicit the support of the distinguished Gentlemen who compose the Grand Juries of the County and City, to this excellent Institution.

The amount of the Collection, together with the
