TO BE SOLD for 10 GUINEAS,

A COMMITTEE appointed to form an I CLUB in Limerick, having purchased a House and being anxious to complete the Establishment as quick as possible, request the Gentlemen nominated Original Members will pay in their Subscriptions forthwith.
 Limerick, April 14, 1813.

FOR THIS SEASON, THE PRICE OF SAILOR,
Is reduced from FIVE to THREE Guineas, and a Crown to the Groom.

SAILOR having been got by Commodore, out of Buffer's Dam, (and being own Brother to the late celebrated Escape.) his Blood cannot be surpassed in the United Kingdom. He is universally admitted to be amongst the most beautiful Horses in either country; is six years old, 16 hands high, singularly fruitful, powerful, and gentle, and his Foals of uncommon promise.

He continues to stand at Nenagh, where there is good Grass in enclosed and well-sheltered Paddocks, at 1s 1d. per Night. Mares and Foals may rest at Kilmastulla and Dunkerrin, in going to and from Nenagh. For Six Guineas a Foal will be insured or the Money returned. The Money to be paid in every instance before the Horse is led out of the Stable, as the Groom is accountable.

April 17, 1813.
