Herbert winds it Diemait, late .. stablishment, be permitted to return meet on Tuesday next, pursuant to for the dispatch of public business. bbe was yesterday sworn in Lord he Court of Common Pleas, before or, at Lincoln's Inn Hall, and Mr. as Chief Baron of the Exchequer. man was, on Saturday last, tried ath, at the Old Bailey, and received nged for setting fire to his house in t, Piccadilly, London, on the 11th h an intent to defraud the Giobe iny, of London, which had the Preted to be consumed, insured for oo on his Interest in the House, ure, and £1500 on the Lease of the stice Heath, on charging the Jury, cts and circumstances were all that by, as it was not to be expected in that any positive evidence could be creey and privacy were commonly perpetrators":-The Jury retired hour, and then returned a verdict

Sessions, sentence of Death was also ers, eight to be transported for life, , 21 for 7 years, & 50 to be whipped, Mr. Kinghorn, bankrupt, prosecuted demeanor, in conspiring to defraud as sentenced to one years imprisonpillored twice at Guildhall yard. ttingstall, was yesterday committed to n suspicion of setting fire to his house, with an intent to defrand the Phoenix bruary 23 - The French frigates Alcgenie were captured off the Western Majesty's ship Venerable and Cyane e latter is arrived with 300 prisoners; one on to the West Indies with the e Venerable also captured a valuable rom Bourdeaux to America. ruary 24 -The Cheerful cutter arrived Helvoet, whither she had conveyed ransports, laden with ordnance scores, excited for their safety, in consequence being all obliged to anchor on the coast. orge packet, which arrived in the night, two of them were on shore, and the fled in ice, at the mouth of the Maese. of the English Roman Catholics, held at the Earl of Shrewsbury's, Stan-Lord Clifford in the Chair, the followarliament was agreed to. It is couched erate langu ge, and will be presented to rds by Earl Grey, and to the Commons n. William Elliott. It was resolved, ith the Petition to Parliament, an Ad-made to the British public on the subonle the Commons of the United Kingdom tain and Ireland, in Parliament Astition of those whose names are under-oman Catholics of Great Britain.

remaining in force against persons provan Catholic Religion in Great Britain, many severe penalties and disabilities. them of many civil rights and privileges, of providing for themselves and their every legitimate object of the ambition ects, depress them in society, and (what it moment is particularly felt by your t against them every avenue to the stah they might otherwise hope to exert orab'e and usefully, in the service of their estiming to rake the oaths, the refusal of 1

try.

quence be has the unbounded confidence quence he has the unbous Board. Mr. O'Connell gave potter of a poster tive to the Londonderry Address, and speciment by some remarks against the Orangement

LIMERICK-MARCH

Extract of a letter received last might, by a man from his Friend, dated Ustaring 13th Fo " I have only an instant to tell you, that we are many, nay, hourly expectation of moving towards Boom We have had a few fine days, and ab soon as the s are sufficiently dry, I believe there is no doubt of our moving.

" It is not expected that we shall meet with any opposition, but that the White Cockade will be housed as soon as we advance—so says every body. Some are even more sauguine, and say, the Army will join the Royal Standard." The Lord High Chancellor has been pleased to ap-

the Peace for the County of Linterek. Saturday last, Michael Scanlan, and John Cox, Esqrs. apprehended a man named Fowlus, of Kilfenny Common, in this County, charged with a violent assault on a man named Donovan, a sew days previous, whereby his life is in danger .- Mg. Seanlan being a Magistrate, has committed him to Hallingarry

bridewell.

point Jeffery Browning, Esq. be a Justice of

An inquest was held last week by John Cox, Esq. Coroner, on the body of Thomas Finn, of Barna, near Newcastle, Co. Limerick, whom it was supposed had died in consequence of a beating, alledged to have been given him by a person in the neighbourhood; -but on the most minute investigation, and assisted by an adjacent Magistrate, it appeared that Flinn died by excessive drinking, which produced suffocation; -and the Jury brought in their Verdict accordingly.

Friday night, some bardy ruffians were so daring to fire several shots at the house of Mr. Sitns, the Miller, at Blackwater, Co. Clare, altho' he bas had a Corporal's guard therein, for his protection, since the burglary and violence committed there in November last.

Edward S. Hickman, Esq. is appointed Crown Solicitor for the Connaught Cucuit, in the room of Arther Dunne, Esq. Hanry Spunner. Esq. of Corolantry, is appointed High-Sheriff of the King's County, and Mr. John Legge, his Sub Sheriff.

The Quarterly examinations at Trinity College, Dublin, will be held on Monday and Tuesday, the 25th and 26th of April next, for the two Classes of Senior Sophisters and Senior Preshmen; and on Thursday and Friday, the 28th and 29th of April, for the Classes of Junior Sophisters and Junior Freshmen. The Treasurer of the House of Industry and Hospital for Lunatics, acknowledges the receipt of 171. 118 6dh. by the hands of the Rev. Joseph Jones, of Rathkeal, being the amount of a Collection made in Rathkeal Church, at a Charity Sermon, preached there by the Rev. Samuel Jones, of Kildimo, on Sunday the 20th of February, including the following donations of those who could not attend the Sermon :- Mr. and Mrs. Massy, of Stoneville, 11 106.; Mr. and Mrs. Hewson, 11.; Mr. and Mrs S Leake, 11.; Counsellor D. Evans, 11.; Mr. J. O'Loughlin, 11.; Mr. R. Rose, of Castlematrass, 10s.; Mr. T. O'Connell, cloth-merchant, 55.; and different sums from a few others, amounting to 125 - The Thanks of this Charity are due to the Rev. Samuel Jones, for his most excellent Sermon; and also, to Mr. Studdert, of Elm Hill, and Mr. Leake, of Rathkeal Abbey, for their attendance as Collectors, and their very liberal contribution. -It is also due to Dr. Tuchy, R. C. Bishop, for his Recommendation of the Charity, at his Chapel, and to such of the Roman Catholic Inhabitants as contributed on that oc-as a result of don, the Las Wright Prioress Exports.—Shand, the Livery MAYO ELECTION .- Oross Poll, (50 For Mr. King Danishand For Mr. Browne ...... Majority for Mr. Kirwan, MARKET PRICES,-Whose, 1 per stone.—Barley. 154 to 00d.—O Rapeseed 40s. to 00s per bel-Perk, 6 Od. per cwt-Flour, 24s. Od. to 26e meal, 188 to 206 Od-Beef, 50 to 7d pe to 8d per lb .- Tallow, 13s. Od to 0 -Potatoes, 21d. to sa per stone. Price of Butter-Firkins 1088-1 Return of Wheat, Oats, and Bar Limerick, for the Week, ending Sat Barrels. Amount. 4725 Wheat, $7,331 17 2826 Barkey, 2,819 2 13,247 Oats. 8,039 16 Assize of Bread-12d Loaf, 21 ditte 216. 912. 1dr.-4d ditto, 116 Irish Stocks, Feb. 28-Got Del -si Gov. Stock 79-Gov. Deb.

Gov. Stock 5 per Ct. 1011 -- Bank ! AUCTIO

To be sold by Au On TUESDAY next, and the s AT THE STORES OF MR ARTH

SHANNON-STREE About 670 Bags of 2d, 8 FLOUR

COME Baking Apparatus, Desks, D Hay; some Grass Seeds; a Cor And at his house, Cecil-street, some B

tains, Carpets, Sideboard Table; En For further particulars apply Assignee to Me Dickson's Estate. Limerick,

TIMBER. BE SOLD, AT OD

The Thinning of the P CONSISTING OF

Ash, Elm, Fir, Beech, B

The Ash and Elm is ver TERMS-HALF CASH, GOOD BILLS

Application to the Steward .- If n fore Tuesday, the 8th, it will be Auction, on THURSDAY, the 10th is

2/9dellville, 1 Wants a Situation, as Respectable YOUNG MAN

1 the Classics, Geography, Eng Application to Me and History MAHONY, King's Arms, Limerack. paid.)