

carried the vilro battalions of es of 12 pieces the barrier of e King of Prusa that humanity itle it calls for o entertaining a m being sacked e Camp to the Orloff, aid-de-were sent to ar-and Count Nes-ister, went in at battle ceased, to yet be knowing the field, and fallen into our e margin * are nsiderable; but that the brave e work of the e standard of re-brium, and the as.
 l-de-camp, Capt.
 h me during the
 with the Cossacks ven him, and will e details I can but eive Col. Lowe's ll not fail to dis-os all further inuring and wonder-o be &c,
 STEWART,
 ut-General.
 aden ditto, 14;
 21; Prince Roy
 Count Woronzow,
 King of Prussia,
 Paris, and entered 180,000 men. in haste for Ram-ight the about dis-mas Hemsworth,
 this City.
 ed to proceed to ntend to erect a idier-Gen. Gore, 2, as a token of ry Corps in the n ending the 24th t is expected that according to the mber last, will be uing Inspection, into Government
 'clock, on Wed-
 same day.
 t Glenville, at 9
 k, in Rathkeal,
 same day.

neighbour, William Ryan, of Newcastle.
 PORT NEWS.—Arrived, Here, Lang, Glasgow, glass and coal—William, Welley, Oporto, Whites, La-nor, Hyndman, Irvin, coals, Janet, Sharp, Glasgow coals.—Maria, M'Laren, Glasgow, coals.—Isabella, Gilchrist, Irvin, coals.—Crichton, M'Kirdy, Glasgow, general goods.—Favorite, Duncan Air, An-Helen, M'Fregor, Liverpool, coals.
 BIRTH—In George's street, on Thursday, the lady of Capt. Richard Johnston, of Bettyville, in the Co. of a daughter.—At Tyrone House, the Marchioness of Waterford, of a son.—In London, the Lady of the Hon.
 Gen. Ponsonby, of a son.—At Weymouth, the Lady of Henry Maynard, Esq. of a son.—At Lancaster, the Lady of the Rev. John Manby, of a son.—In Wilceater, Lady Charlotte Gould, of twin sons.—In London, the Lady of Lieut.-Col. Davis, of a son.—In James's-place, London, the Lady of Capt. Bluett N. of a son.
 MARRIED—At Edinburgh, George Crosby, Esq. merchant in London, to Margaret Mure, daughter Henry Johnston Wylie, Esq. solicitor in the Court of Session, Edinburgh.—At Enniskillen, Simon Armstrong, Esq. of Drumcore, to Anne, eldest daughter of John Graham, Esq.—In London, Lieut. Garrett, 7th Fus-leers, to Charlotte, daughter of Lord Edward Bentinck.
 Lieut. Furber, R. N. to Miss Dax, of Lincoln's Inn.— Hyde S. Whalley, Esq. to Miss Drage, of Cambridge DIED—In Nelson street, Dublin, Christopher Baynes, Esq. aged 71.—At his house in London, Mat. Higgins, Esq. of Benown, Co. Westmeath.—At Pegglyffen, North Wales, Capt. Bedford Smith, 6th drag. guards.
 At Craik, aged 77, Lieut.-Col. Claves.—At Glashy, Co. Waterford, John Mulcahy, jun. Esq.—Suddenly, in Dublin, Mrs. O'Connor, wife of Valentine O'Connor, Esq.—Suddenly, on Monday, the Rev. Chas. Lovelock, Professor of Belles Letters, at the Royal College of St.
 Patrick, Maynooth.—At Bandon, on Sunday evening, much regretted, Capt. James Dunlop, of the 26th regt. of foot, Brigade Major to the Forces—he was well known in this City.—At Berehaven, Mary, daughter of Theophilus M. Symms, of Waterfall, in the Co. Cork.
 On the 21st ult. at Bergen-op zoom, in consequence of the several wounds he received there, Major-General Skerrett, fourth in command under the Gen. Sir Thos.
 Graham—a more gallant officer has not been lost to his country—his conduct at Tariffa, on the Peninsula, and in fact every quarter of the Globe, was most conspicuous—he was second son of the late General Skerrett.— At Harwich, Mrs. Walker, wife of Lieut. Walker, 1st Royal Veteran Bat.—At Tarragona, in the 96th year of his age, Lieut. Sampson Pierce, 44th regt.— Of the wounds he received at the battle of Orthes, on the 27th Feb. Ensign Bernard Reynolds, of the 88th regt. son of Mr. Reynolds of Feera, Co. Roscommon.
 At Woodbine Cottage, Henton, England, Adm. Sir Thos. Graves, K. B.—At Exeter, Temple Hardy, Esq.
 Captain in the R. N. and son of the late Adm. Sir C.
 Hardy, Bt.—In James's-st. Dublin, Sam Madder, Esq. an eminent Brewer.—In London, Henry Whitmarsh, Esq. Commissary-General.—At Clifton, Wm. Gregory Williams, Esq. of Nottingham.—At Plymouth, by the upsetting of a boat, Lord Edwean, R. N.—In Wexford, the wife Lieut.-Col. Cliffe.—In Ennis, the relict of Geo.
 Fitzgerald, Esq. of that town.—Suddenly, in Mill-st.
 Ennis, Mr. Dennis O'Keefe, Colliet.—In Kilkenny, Miss Kehoe.—At Fermoy, on Tuesday last, Lieut.
 George J. Hodges, of the Co. Limerick Regt.—This day, the infant son of Joseph Gabbett, Jun. Esq.
 MARKET PRICES.—Wheat, 1s. 7d. to 1s. 9d. per stone.—Barley, 1s. 1 to 14d.—Oats, 10d. to 00d.
 Rapeseed 40s. to 00s per brl.—Pork, 8 1/2 Od. to 00s. Od.
 0d. per cwt.—Flour, 25s. Od. to 00s. per cwt.—Oatmeal, 14s to 14s 6d.—Beef, 7d to 9d per lb.—Mutton, 9d to 10d per lb.—Tallow, 18s. Od to 00s. Od. per stone.
 —Potatoes, 2 1/2d. to 3d per stone.

1814, at Twelve o'Clock in the after-rupt's interest in the following Lands and The Lands of Rosbrien and Rathb the South Liberties of the City of Limer about 15 acres, Plantation Measure, mo under two several Leases, for 9 lives, w for perpetual renewal, at the Yearly Rent and £3 8s. 3d. renewal fine on the fall The Properties of Rathbane and Rosb to a Life Annuity of 20l. to Sarah Wel The Leases of the above have been r 1st of August, 1812, and all the lives a A large sum of money has been ex Bankrupt on these Lands, in lasting, va namental improvements.
 A plot of Ground, situate at the back in the City of Limerick, containing, in 6 inches; in the Rere, 46 Feet, and in Front to Rere, 102 feet: 6 inches, he Pery for three lives, with a covenant fo newal, at the Yearly Rent of £10, an newal fine on the fall of each life.
 This Plot of Ground has been dem Lives, renewal for ever, and produces profit Rent of £10, besides the renewa A Dwelling-house and Shop, near B e City of Limerick, held under a leas on September 1794, at the yearly Ren These premises now produce a clea nt of £40, which is well secured, an a very valuable interest therein. hat part of the dwelling-house, No. qu, in the City Limerick, with the C Are the Guard house, near the Ordn the tables and Coach-House thereto b and a lease for 900 years, from Ma lenf 150l.
 The Premises produce a clear year profit of £44. 19s. 9d.
 The House, Land, and Orchard of taining 1 Acres, situate at Annacotty. of the City of Limerick, held under a clear lease, for Three Lives, renew the yearly Rent of £2. 3s. and a pep al fine
 These lands now produce a well sec fit Rent £72. 0s. 3d.
 The Bankrupt has only a Life Inter said land and premises, he being m Life, and a covenant entered into previ marriage with his present wife, in the y A Well House and Offices on A the Cit of Limerick, with the Coach-H thereto along, held under a Lease o the 1st day, 92, at the yearly rent of These Premises produce a yearly prof Two Well-Houses, Malt-House and Tuck Mill and Out Offices, top Demesne entibus to the same, con situate at Killyry, in the Liberties Limerick, held under a Lease dated M Three Lives, at the yearly rent of £ being These Premises produce a net Year £99. 10s. 9d.
 The two last mentioned Premises w out reserve. For particulars, as to THOMAS LELAND, Agent to the william-square Dub April 9, 1814. BENNI of The Advertiser in The L Post of the 8th inst. was inserted sent or approbata.
 JOHN B
 THOS. C
 nces to Th
 Limerick. Adm.