

of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble authorized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

ATSON & DIBD—In London, the Hon. William Brucknall; A Captain Clinton Wynward, F. G. son of Gen. ynward—Yesterday, at his son's house, in Clare-friends and acquaintance—In Sligo—At Woodbrook-House, Grinda, daughter of Chas. Frazier Ballyshannon, Lieutenant James Carlow Regt and son-in-law of E.
 Esq. of Tralee—At Bluncrana, Sir of Londonderry, At Oakenhouse, on, the eldest daughter of the late Sir esley, Bart—At Glyntoe, near Cork, daughter of the late Hewitt Poole, Esq., d, Co. Cork—On Wednesday last, in the ain-street, Cork, in her 36th year, Mrs. Mary Mills, elicit of Stephen Mills, Esq. formerly of said City, banker.—In Wimpole Street, London, Sir J.
 Musgrave, Bart.—In London, Colonel W. Blair.—At Portman-Square, Captain Charles Stuart, R. N.

MARKET PRICES.—Wheat, 1s. 4d. to 1s. 6½d.
 Rapeseed 40s. to 00s per brl—Pork, 40s. 0d. to 00s. 0d.
 Od. per cwt—Flour, 20s. 0d. to 24s. per cwt.—Oatmeal, 14s to 14s 6d.—Beef, 7d to 9d per lb.—Mutton, 9d to 10d per lb.—Tallow, 13s. 0d to 00s. 0d. per stone.
 —Potatoes, 2½d. to 3d per stone.

Price of Butter—Firkins 120s—116s—108s—98s.
 Return of Wheat, Oats, and Barley, as sold in Limerick, for the Week, ending Saturday, April 30.

Barrels.	Amount.	Average.
2268 Wheat,	£3,219 15 0	1 8 4
942 Barley,	712 4 0	0 15 1
1821 Oats,	879 3 0	0 9 7½

Assize of Bread—12d Loaf, 5lb. 11oz. 3dr.—6d. ditto 2lb. 13oz. 5dr.—4d ditto, 1lb. 14oz. 2dr.
 Irish Stocks, May 2—Gov. Deb. 3½ per Ct. 80.
 —3½ Gov. Stock 73½—Gov. Deb. 5 per Ct. 102—Gov. Stock 5 per Ct. 101½—Bank Stock 00.

SECOND EDITION.
 Chronicle-Office, Four o'Clock.

General Mar... Governor of Toulon, and Eugene Beauharnois sent in their adhesion to the King of France.
 The Brest Fleet is given up to the King of France.
 Lieut.-Gen. W. Henry Clinton is appointed Colonel of the 55th Regiment.
 It is said that the French New Constitution was publicly burnt at the Theatre, in the presence of the Duke of Angouleme, at Bourdeaux, on the 23d ult. supposed to be caused by the adherents of Jerome and Joseph, who have a powerful rabble, committing every excess at Orleans.
 Lord Castlereagh was to leave Paris for London on Saturday last.
 A cartel was to have sailed from the United States on the 1st March, with fresh instructions to the American Plenipotentiaries in Europe.
 We have just heard from unquestionable authority, that the first act of the Pope, on his re-establishment at Rome, was to pass, in full Consistory, with all the Cardinals unanimously agreeing, an arrangement giving to the British Crown the security respecting the nomination of the Catholic Bishops. We are assured that special instructions to this effect have been dispatched by his Holiness to all the Catholic Prelates of the British Empire.—Pilot.
 Lord William Bentinck was on a visit with the Pope, by the last accounts.
 The Prince Regent is to be present at the Coronation of Louis XVIII. at Paris.
 The Allied Armies were to leave Paris on the 29th; the advanced left that City on the 26th.
 The Prince of Orange arrived in town Saturday—his marriage with the Princess Charlotte is to take place in July.
 Several regiments have embarked at Portsmouth, for America—amongst them are the 1st Royal; the 7th Fusileers, and 29th are also ordered.
 It is stated that none of the 2d Battalions are to be reduced.
 The Chancellor of the Exchequer has announced that the Loan required is to be on a limited scale.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their pay-
 ments after a peace.
 by the King of France,
 Departments, to inform the
 France, and to report any ex-
 of War was issued by Swe-
 Bourdeaux, arrived on Mon-
 ly received by Monsieur.
 his parole in England, com-
 aparte to Elba.
 cessary hostilities have taken
 where, in consequence of
 intelligence of the counter-
 country are computed at
 dy been already released,
 urse of removal. The
 e place on Sunday and
 prisoners, have arrived
 to be in London next
 in Grosvenor-square.
 Lucas's noble is Ha-
 ce at Calais, was on
 , and the rest of his
 accompanied the King
 at his palace.
 of England to the
 Angouleme, did not
 ntry; for, on their
 magnificent carriages,
 arms of France,
 and conveyance to
CHANGE.
 rday morning, in
 e of receiving a
 rmed would be
 the late fraud on
 12 o'clock Mr.
 ended at the In-
 the indictment.
 allegations it
 ded to the in-
 Sir Thomas,
 ochrane John-
 n, Alexander
 mong others,
 d to him the
 be ingenious
 e the mock
 these were
 effes, Jews
 d it a true
 is XVIII.
 ble autho-
 rized the
 coaquez
 pril fol-
 es.
 et.
 from
 ection
 in lat.
 e the
 tion.
 In-
 ow
 is.
 as
 e.

WELLINGTON'S DISPATCHES,
 of the events which had occurred
 joy and rejoicing at Toulouse,
 and of the British General had
 confidence and esteem of the people,
 ability, and encouraged them to
 the House of Bourbon.
 150 large transports,
 Bourdeaux to America.
 is laid, are to make their