

for the Executive to act in its own responsibility... would not be a clause of dissonance, but a clause of enactment.

Reading of the Bill... Mr. Pensonby re-entering the gallery, we find Mr. Rose, which legs opposing the clause of Mr. Rose, which legs moved while strangers were excluded.

Mr. Grattan, on Tuesday night, presented to the House of Commons, the Petition of the Roman Catholics of Ireland, praying a repeal of the penal laws, observing, at the same time, that it was not his intention to bring the question forward in the present Session.

Sir Gerard Noel Noel, Bart. has been returned for the Co. Rutland, in the room of Charles Noel Noel, Esq. who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Saturday last, a meeting of the Parish Priests of this Diocese, was held at St. Michael's Chapel, at which the following Resolutions were unanimously adopted: Resolved—That as the spiritual guardians of our respective flocks, we feel it our duty to caution them against the reception of any opinions, which may be eventually injurious to their faith and morals.

That having maturely considered the late Rescript from Rome, signed "B. Quorantotti," and forwarded by the Right Rev. Doctor Poynter, Apostolic Vicar of London, to the Catholic Bishops and Vicars Capitular of Ireland, we are firmly of opinion, that the said Rescript should not be obeyed by the Catholic Church of Ireland, because we consider its principles dangerous to our Holy Religion, and contrary, not only to the decision of the Irish Bishops, but also to the express sentiments of the sacred College itself, promulgated in the year 1805.

That we are determined to hold no communication whatever, on this unauthorised document, with Monseigneur Quorantotti or Dr. Poynter, solemnly protesting against any Lay interference with the government of our Church or appointment of her Hierarchy, and against all innovation, tending, directly or indirectly, to disturb her unity and integrity, or infringing in the smallest degree on the Spiritual Supremacy of our revered chief Pastor, Pius VII. the venerable Head of our Church, the successor of Peter, and the Vicegerent of Christ.

That we consider ourselves particularly called on, to defend and preserve the sacred deposit of unity of Faith and the spiritual supremacy of our Chief Pastor, because our brave ancestors, while defending their Civil Rights within the walls of Limerick, obtained the guarantee of a solemn treaty for the free and full exercise of the ancient Religion of Ireland.

CHARLES TOUHY, Vicar Capitular of the Diocese of Limerick, President. These Resolutions are signed by thirty-six Parish Priests.

On Saturday night last, Timothy Mulvihill, one of the principals in the murder of the late Mr. Wall, was apprehended at Knockane, by the spirited and judicious exertions of John Sandes, Esq. a Magistrate of this County, aided by a party of the Waterford Militia, quartered at Listowel.

On Monday Richard Smyth, Esq. High Sheriff, conveyed John Murphy under an escort to the fair of Ballingarry, where he underwent the sentence of the law by whipping, for an assault, of which he was found guilty at the last Sessions.

Monday night, some villains burned three houses on the lands of Boher, in the liberties of this City, because the occupiers had dared to contract on reasonable terms, for gravelling part of the new line of road from hence to Tipperary.

The above road will be of vast acquisition to this City and County, and the adjacent districts, promote the intercourse, and facilitate the conveyance of Letters, &c. as there is to be a Mail Coach established from Limerick to Tipperary, Clonmel and Waterford, when the road shall be completed.

In the sittings after last Easter Term, Mr. Joseph Ryan and Mr. Edward Lee, were sworn Attorneys.

The 43d regiment, with the Londonderry and West Kent Militia are ordered to reinforce the troops at Deal, where it is expected their Continental Majesties will be received. The 12th Veteran Battalion are on their route from Youghall to Dublin.

General Officers not having regiments are to be allowed half-pay as such, and not according to the regimental rank, as was formerly the case.
