body, and flung him, near Mountmelleck, on Sa-

The Junior Lieutenant Colonel of each regiment is placed on half pay, and in consideration of the number of cornetries which remain vacant for sale, the lieutenants liable to reduction, shall have the option of remaining upon cornet's pay, or of being now placed upon half pay. In the former case, they will, of course be expected to perform the duties of Cornets, but they will retain their rank of Lieutenant, and their regimental seniority, and will succeed to vacant lieutenantcies as they occur, on the establishment.

The Supernumerary serjeants and corporals who may be found in every respect fit for service, will be allowed to be retained until vacancies occur in the establishment to which they are to succeed.

Accounts have been received, stating that the British army which sailed from the Gironde had safely reached Canada on the 26th June. We congratulate

The thanks of the County are due to the Rev.

their deluded neighbours will feel the necessity of ceasing from their nightly depredations and illegal legislation.
