 The General has been for many years in Upper and Lower Canada, employed on important active service; in the last two campaigns in Upper Canada, the General distinguished himself, particularly near Fort George, where he surprised with a handful of men, and totally defeated a large force of the American army, commanded by two Generals, both of whom he took prisoners. Gen. Vincent was relieved in his command at Kingston, by Major-Gen.
 Conran.

 vice under Lord Castlereagh's Act, and entitle them to it is understood, to permanent rank in the line.

 We have satisfaction in accounting to the Public, the detection and complete annihilation of a numerous and desperate banditti of robbers, to the number of fifteen, who in the most daring manner associated in the Liberties of this City and vicinity, for the purpose of attacking the Houses and Property of the peaceable inhabitants. Their plans and views have been discovered by the Rt. Worshipful Thos.
 F. Wilkinson, Esq. Mayor, and the names of some of these freebooters will be found under the head of Committals by his Worship. It is gratifying to perceive that at the termination of his arduous office this active Magistrate has been as indefatigable as at the commencement of his Mayoralty, and the peace and safety of the suburbs for the ensuing winter, may in a great measure depend on the termination put to this gang of miscreants. It is ascertained, that on the following night after their apprehension the villains were to attack the houses of Punch, Galligan, Philip Fitzgerald and other Farmers in the Liberties; and the extent of their depredations may be conceived, when exclusive of clothes and valuable articles obtained by the Mayor, he has now in his possession no less than fifty doc-
