74 guns, at Plymouth, in 25 days from Quebec
The General has been for many years in Upper Lower Canada, employed on important active service; in the last two campaigns in Upper Canthe General distinguished himself, particularly near Fort George, where he surprised with a handful of men, and totally defeated a large force of the American army, commanded by two Generals, both of whom he took prisoners. Gen. Vincent was relieved in his command at Kingston, by Major-Oen-Conran.

Monday, the Dorset regt. embarked at Cove for England.
The expected general reduction of the additional battalions of the regts. of the line, stationed in England, did not take place on the 24th inst. as was expected. The 2d bat. 47th regt. and that battalion alone is to be reduced immediately.
The 3d bat. 56th regt. just landed at Holland, are to be quartered at Sheerness.

An order has been issued from the War-Office, allowing Militia Officers that volunteered into the Line, full pay to the 24th inst. Instead of the 24th August, by which it will complete their term of service under Lord Castlereagh's Act, and entitle them as it is understood, to permanent rank in the line.
The Wexford regiment embarked at Harwich, on Wednesday, for Waterford.

We have the satisfaction to announce the final sailing of the expedition, consisting of the 4th, 44th,
