The Earl of Ormond, and the Officers of the Kilkenny Militia, have presented John Enery, Esq. their late Lieut.-Col. with two pieces of Plate, as a testimony of the respect and the esteem of the regt.

The Recorder will sit precisely at half-past Ten o'clock, on Monday next, at the City Court House, for Trials.

The Aurora, of and from Lisbon, arrived in Cork on Thursday. On her passage she was boarded by two American privateers, one of whom informed the Aurora, that she had captured or destroyed fifty one vessels. The Aurora did not meet a British cruiser.

Lord Robert Tottenham Lord Bishop of Killaloe, held his annual visitation for the diocese of Killaloe, at the Cathedral there on Wednesday last: there was a full attendance of the Clergy, to whom there was an excellent charge delivered by his Lordship, and an impressive sermon preached by the Rev. Michael Fitz Gerald.

On Wednesday last, there was a numerous meeting of the inhabitants of Tralee and its vicinity, when a Branch of the Hibernian Bible Society was established for the County Kerry—John Bateman, Esq. of Oakpark, was in the chair when resolutions were entered into and the thanks of the assembly given to Messrs Thorpe and Mathias, the Secretaries from Dublin, who attended and satisfactorily explained the excellent benefit resulting from the parent Society. Large sums were collected at the meeting, and a Committee consisting of nearly all the Nobility and several of the Gentry and Ladies of the first distinction in the County, were appointed, several of whom have already gladly come forward with their assistance.

FIRE-WORKS—Signior Magleishi has again been obliged to postpone his FIRE-WORKS in consequence of the wetness of the weather to Monday next, when his Exhibition will be brought forward in a most superb manner. He has, we hear, spared neither time or expence in preparing for to display the greatest varieties that ingenuity can invent, and which have so frequently been admired at Vauxhall Gardens, London. We are confident Signior Magleishi will have a full and fashionable attendance; the place for displaying the Works is fitted up very comfortably.

An Inquest was held on Saturday last, by John Cox, Esq. Coroner, on the body of John Kinevane, of Lisard, who was killed by a wicked bull.—Verdict accordingly.

Thursday last, Arthur Henry D'Esterre, Esq. Coroner, held an Inquest on the body of Mr. Edw. Bourke, of Bruff, who died the day previous in the County Gaol, where he was confined for debt.—Verdict—'Died by the Visitation of GOD.'

On Monday, an inquest was held by John Howell, Esq. Deputy Mayor of Clonmel, on the body of a female infant, which was found in the river near the House of Industry, and appeared to have lain there about three weeks—a Verdict of "Wilful Murder" was found against the unnatural parent.

The Mayor, yesterday apprehended and lodged in jail, a suspicious fellow, who has not given a satisfactory account of himself—Persons who have lately taken forged 100. Bank of Ireland and other notes, would do well to view this man, who can be seen on applying to the Mayor.—The above man, who has been detained, is named John Kenny, and has been identified by several, as negotiating forged notes, for which he was lately apprehended in Cork.
