his soul to Heaven!—Can it then be wondered at, that deep dejection and unaffected sorrow pervade the surrounding neighbourhood; that the bitterness of grief rends the hearts of his now widowed wife, his ten children, and his deep-afflicted Father?— But who shall presume to arraign the Ways of Hea-in his own due time, bind up the wound—The example of such a Father will not be lost on his promising children—Mr. Harte was formerly in the 60th regiment, and subsequently in the 12th Light Dragoons, in which regiment he served in Portugal and Rome, where he got a medal for his gallant conduct.

He was a Magistrate, and served the office of High Sheriff of the Co. Limerick in the year 1802, and was also a Burgess of this City—His remains were interred this day in the family vault, at Castletown,
