Mr. John Middendorf, state of a foreign country, who this port, visited the House of Industry on Wednesday, and approved so highly of its utility, that he gave the Treasurer One Guinea.—Total of Objects in the House, 286!

The Mayor yesterday gave the Treasurer of the House of Industry, Three Guineas, which he received from James McMahon, as awarded in the Court-House.

Mrs. Archdeacon Hill sent, on Thursday, a cart of vegetables to the House of Industry.

Thursday, the Mayor sent to the House of Industry, three pick-pockets, the age of the eldest of whom does not exceed 19 years.—It is truly to be regretted, to see the number of young thieves, who get a livelihood by robbing on the different quays; many of whom are encouraged by their parents.

The Rev. Henry Letroy, Treasurer to the Lying-in Hospital and Hospital for Incurables, acknowledges the receipt of Two Guineas, by the hands of the Rev. Wm. Lewis, from Mrs. Maunsell Plassy, being the amount of a subscription (intended to be annual) towards that Institution.

COMMITTED—Yesterday, by C. D. Oliver, Esq. to the County Jail, Michael Sullivan charged with horse-stealing.

PORT NEWS—Arrived, Caedonia, Reed, Pictou, BIRTH—In Belmont, Co. Tyrone, the Lady of the Hon. A. Stuart, of a son and heir.—At Galvagh, the Lady of Poole Gabbett, Esq. High Sheriff, Co.

 Clare, of a daughter.

MARRIED—In Edinburgh, Doctor Lethergen, of Coleraine to Mary, daughter of the late Captain Grant, of 55th regt.—Major Egerton, to Arabella, youngest daughter of Henry Tomkinson, Esq. of Dorfold-hall, Cheshire.—Evan Wooden, of Montgomeryshire, aged 52, to Miss Jones, of Cefgoly, same county, aged 17.—In Youghal, Lieut. O'Hehir, 5th bat 50th regt to Miss O. Moore, only daughter of Col. Garret Moore, of Cloghen Castle, King's Co.—In Upper Shannon Church, by the Rev. Rich-Lee, Mr. Charles Graves, of Brookvale, Co. Waterford, to Ann, eldest daughter of the late Thomas Morton, Esq. of Cork.

DEED—In Old Church street, Dublin, Mr. Edw.
 Stutch, aged 67 years.—In Kennington, Mr. John Brady.—At his house, in Kilmurphy, the wife of Maurice Hore, Esq.—At Caroline Row, Dublin, in the prime of life after an illness of a few days, D. B.
 Hemsworth, Esq. for many years Captain and Paymaster of the Kilkenny militia. It is but a just tribute to his memory, to say, that he was, in the most comprehensive sense of the word, a Philanthropist, liked and esteemed by all who knew him; he will be very long remembered, and very long regretted by his private friends, and by his country (which held him in the most cordial regard and respect). He has left a most amiable family, to deplore a loss, as affecting as it is irreparable. His Son, a young Gentleman, whose mind and morals are founded on the example of his revered and lamented parent, we eat with much satisfaction, will be his successor in the Paymastership of the Kilkenny regt.— In Leeson-st. Dublin Mrs. Cornwall next of Robert Cornwall, of Stayshall, Co. Carlow, Esq.—In London, Mrs. Stevenson, wife of John Stevenson, Esq. of the Dragon Guards.
