

CATHOLIC PETITIONS.

ion was ascribed to Lord Killeen, but by his Lordship.

institute a very large portion of his part of the United Kingdom.

to their Sovereign, obedient to the constitution; and that their loyalty have been long since recognized in the legislature of their country.

submit to and bear their full share in various duties of citizens and subjects, from the members of their communion to man those fleets and fill the ranks of under the blessing of Providence, have an unexampled height of glory, and accordant voice of liberated Europe, the head of the civilized world, as the and protector of its violated rights and general prosperity, and, as they humbly and acknowledged claims to conspire to feel themselves bound to represent House that they are degradedly distant of their fellow subjects by legal disprivations of many important privations, and valuable rights of citizens and circumstances of the times in which they enacted, and which might then appear to account speciously for them, have and that the acquiescence in their con-

enlightened, liberal, and magnanimous lives them, as a species of re-actment, a which the impression is not the least wounds they inflict on their unfortunate present state and spirit of the civilized ties, which by a kind of general pro-very numerous class of loyal and sub-

in all the honorable and invigorating are not, perhaps, less derogatory from report of this widely extended and pire—not less injurious to the public, than certainly oppressive to the general ter of petitioners, and the liberal walks ve of the fair energies of their individual use or pretext of privations and disabi-petitioners labour; and of which they tion which they profess. But petitioners at they have not made or invented their

of it—they have received it entire from not be suspected as unknown or obscure. religion of the empire and of Chris-religion of the Fathers of English Liberty, be English constitution; it is still the us Majesty's allies, and of a large portion ions, which, from the earliest periods, had and still glory in the name of christians. ascertained in all its bearings; it shuns far as it relates to social principles, in it can be cognizable by those who do not in candid investigation, be found under political forms and circumstances, per- th all the social duties; and petitioners truth or the assertion, because they know at their religion, as they fully understand esented, can never, under any circum-terfere with their moral, civil or political to their obligation and enforce their ob-ore, trusting in the wisdom and magnat, humbly pray, that, as they are loyal to ve to the laws, and attached to the consti-gion cannot influence their social conduct, a more pure and prompt performance of is they willingly bear their full proportion he community, and contribute their full nd laborious duties, they may, in common or fellow subjects, be admitted within the tion, and restored to a full participation of tal rights and privileges of native citizens, oyal subjects. And, as in duty bound, pray.

LUBE'S PETITION.

parts that we are once more necessitated to fish Nation, in the attitude of humble peti- as a boon which we claim from justice as with shame and surprise we feel that Ireland e, at this epoch of universal deliverance, a servitude that debases her and disgraces address you in terms of sycophancy or of ould despise our meanness, and abhor our we rather prove that we are worthy to be scending to use the language of slaves.— seen cruelly oppressed, we are not broken erminating principle within us, that would

NATURAL PHENOMENON.—In the Blue mountains, about 87 miles from Batavia, in the island of Java, is a spring of water, so hot, that few persons can bear immersion in it; within little more than two feet of this almost boiling cauldron, another spring arises, so cold that it almost instantly benumbs those who attempt to use it; those waters, overflowing, join in a current, and supply a bath formed by the natives, of such a temperature, as to be delightful at all seasons of the year.

BIRTH.

At her father's on the Terrace, Cork, the Lady of Charles Sugrue, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIED.

On Thursday last at Kilshanick church, Co. Cork, Thomas Edward Spratt, Esq. only son of Harmer Spratt, of Pencil Hill, Esq. to Barbara, only daughter of Colonel Foot, of Milford

On the 10th inst. in St. George's Church, Dublin, Francis Henry Holdcroft, Upper Gardiner Street, Esq. to Susanna, daughter of the Rev. Thomas Sutton, of Kilmaganny, County of Kilkenny.

On Thursday, the 3d inst. by special licence, Robert Carter, Esq. of Tallow, County Carlow, to Miss Crigan, co-heiress to the late Claudius Crigan, Lord Bishop of Soder and Man.

By special licence, Daniel James Hearn, Esq. late Lieutenant Col. 53d regt. to Eliza, Daughter of Richard Holmes, King's County, Esq.

At Gort, Ensign Sweeney, of the 59th regt. to Miss Mahon, daughter of the late Patrick Mahon, of Clune, Co. Galway, Esq.

In Castlebar, Mr. Patrick Harte, to Miss A. Carney.

DIED.

Last night, in Patrick Street, much lamented, Mr. John Coghlan, Revenue Officer.

On the 28th of Oct. last, at Barbadoes, on board the Union, of Cork, Mr. Wm. Westram, aged 24, son to Mr. Robert Westram, of West Passage, Cork.

COMMITTED.

By Godfrey Missy, Esq. to the County Jail, John Shea, charged with being one of a party who stole several articles of household furniture, and two pigs, the property of Patrick Carmody, of Knockaville.

By Richard Smyth, Esq. High Sheriff of this County, to said Jail, James Quinshin and George Collins, charged with burglary and felony in the house of William Meade, and with firing at George Browne and wounding him in the throat, of which he now languishes.

By the Rev Wm B. Odell, to said jail, Daniel Harrigan, charged with the murder of Edmond Nunan, aged 12 years, by giving him a blow on the head with a stick, and with having assaulted and wounded David Nunan, father to the deceased.

By Rickard Lloyd, Esq. Patrick Tracey, charged with being one of a gang of thieves who entered the house of Catherine Carmody, of Pallas Greane, on the night of the 7th inst. robbed him of bank notes, and several other articles

By said Magistrate, to the said jail, Connor Kennedy, charged before the Rev Charles Coote, with aiding and assisting in an attempt to murder John Hayes, by firing at him with an intent to kill him.

By John Thomas Westropp, Esq. Henry Neale, charged with felony.

By Alderman Watson, to the City jail, Judy Conway, charged with stealing silver spoons.

By the Mayor, to said jail, Mary Hickey, Margaret and Bell Hickey, charged with the murder of the infant child of the aforesaid Mary Hickey.

AUCTION AT BALLYNORT,

Near Askeaton, in the County Limerick.

MR. EDWARD GRIFFIN,

WILL offer for Sale by Auction at Ballynort, on MONDAY, the 30th of January instant, some House, Cart, Plough, Wheel and Hand-Bar TIMBER, of every sort and description: two new Carts made of the best materials, with Turf-rails to contain each four Statute Kishes; two new Carts not mounted; some second hand Carts and Gars with Tackling; several new Rails, Ploughs, and Quins, mounted and unmounted; Hand Bars and Wheel Bars—Also some full grown Ash, Elm, Scotch Fir, Beech, Alder, Birch, and Sycamore TREES from 20 to 30 feet in length, blown down by the late storm, all which will be Sold together or in lots, to convenience Purchasers.

Three as good Hunters as any in Ireland, warranted sound and free from blemish—One, a capital seven years old Mare, with or without an uncommonly fine Horse Foal at her foot, by Little Harry—the second a six year old Mare, with or without a Filly Foal by the same Sire This Mare was considered by the best Judges to be the handsomest that raced at Retbkeale

SUN ASSURANCE COMPANY.

RECEIVED from the Directors of the Sun Assurance Company, of London, by the hands of Mr. EDWARD BERNARD, their Agent in Limerick, the sum of Nine Hundred and Seventy Six Pounds, Four Shillings, and Six Pence, Ster. being the full amount of my claim on said Company for the Loss sustained by the Burning of the House of Rocklodge, my Household Furniture, Wearing Apparel, Printed Books, Plate, China, Glass, and Pictures therein, on the Second of August, 1814, and Insured by Policy, No. 894302.

THOMAS FRENCH MAUNSELL, J

Present, EDWARD MORONY, Mayor.

£901 2s. 3d. at Par, is }
£976 4s. 6d. Irish. }

To be Sold by Auction.

ON the CUSTOM HOUSE QUAY, on WEDNESDAY 18th Inst. at One o'Clock, for account of the Underwriters.

Ten Hogsheads Raw SUGAR.

Partly damaged on board the Limerick TRADER from London.

Terms Bank of Ireland or Limerick Bank Notes.

THOMAS SEYMOUR Auctioneer.

Limerick, Jan. 16, 1815.

TO BE LET,

From the 25th March next,

Fort Shannon Lodge and Demesne, Situate between Glin and Tarbert.

Forty or Fifty Acres may be given, or any lesser number down to Ten.

A Toties Quoties Clause to be given if agreed for.

Apply as before.

January 16, 1815

Fashionable Staymaking,

No. 3, Bank Place,

L. LANDENY,

RETURNS his most grateful Thanks to the Ladies of this County and City, for their preference since his commencing the above business—respectfully informs them, that he has received from France this week, the Model of the Corset à la Cote so unanimously preferred.

His charges, as usual, will be moderate.

Limerick, January 17.

AT a Meeting of the Committee of the Limerick Lancasterian School, held at the Commercial Buildings on the 13th January 1815.

Robert Maunsell, Esq. in the Chair.

RESOLVED, that we receive with feelings of Satisfaction and gratitude the munificent offer of the Trustees of the late Widow Banks's Charitable Bequest to contribute the Sum of One Hundred Pounds towards the erection of a Female School on the Lancasterian Plan, whenever the Committee determine on building a School Room for that purpose; and that we entertain the most confident hopes that the liberality of our Fellow Citizens will enable us in a short time to determine on that highly important measure; important, as it would comprize not only instruction in Reading, Writing, and Arithmetic, but other parts of education necessary for females of the humbler Classes of Society such as useful needle work, &c.

ROBERT MAUNSELL Chairman.

JOHN CARROLL Secretary.

MR. MAUNSELL, feels indebted to the Directors of the Sun Company, and to their Agents in Limerick, Mr. EDWARD BERNARD, for facilitating his Concern with them—and for the liberality evinced on their part in the entire transactions.

Jan. 17.

January 6, 1815.

SIR,

WE request you will convene a Meeting of our Co. as soon as may be convenient, to take into consideration the expediency of Petitioning Parliament for a modification of the Corn Laws of Ireland—we have the honor to be, Sir, your obedient Servants.

To RICHARD SMYTH, Esq. High Sheriff Co. Limerick

Charles Conyers,
Wm. Massey, Glenville,
Michael Scanlan,

Richard Standish,
Edward Lloyd,
Richard M. Yielding,