Limerick, Feb. 24.

TO THE
Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders,
OF THE County of Limerick.
GENTLEMEN,
THE County of Limerick is deeply interested in the issue of the Great Question, whether the Corn Laws shall be strengthened or continue at their present pitch. It is therefore with great pleasure I communicate to you the determination just announced by his Majesty's Ministers, of their intention to support a bill which will be immediately introduced giving some further protection to the Agricultural interest of the United Empire.
I indulge a sanguine hope that I shall soon have to congratulate my Countrymen, on the passing of a wise and necessary Regulation. Yet the example of last Sessions shews, that we must not expect to complete any alteration of the Corn Laws, however salutary, without very formidable opposition.
I have been induced to make this communication by an anxious desire to remove as soon as possible some part of the well founded alarm that must pervade the minds of my constituents—and I have the honour to be.
Gentlemen,
Your faithful and constant
Friend and Servant.
