MR. BRUCE has read, with great surprise, the Ad-
 -vertisement of Mr. Dickson, in which he endeavours to
 -shew that Serjeant Johnson mistated the case of George Evans
 -Bruce and Co. against his son.

Mr. Bruce asserts that Mr. Dickson was the only creditor
 -who forced the bankruptcy of his son Mr. James Fisher
 -affirms, that he was compelled by a legal notice on the part of
 -Mr. John Norris Russell, nephew to Mr. Dickson, to make
 -Mr. Arthur Dickson a bankrupt, and Mr. Russell furnished
 -the proof of bankruptcy, Mr. Russell was urged to this pro-
 -ceeding by Mr. Dickson; Mr. Bruce's two letters to Mr.
 -Stephen Dickson will prove this fact, namely, that Mr.
 -Arthur Dickson was made a bankrupt by his family. Mr.
 -Dickson has claimed on his child's estate a much larger sum
 -than he alleges, namely, the sum of £250, on foot of a letter
 -written to him by his son, in which he promises to mortgage
 -his stores in Limerick to his father; and also the sum of
 -£340 9s. 8d. rent, for which he distrained the Mill, Mill
 -Land and Farm; and he has absolutely received that sum and
 -£23 16s. costs—he further claims £170 4s. 10d. and £11
 -costs.

Mr. Dickson is the only creditor of his son who litigated
 -the claim of George Evans Bruce & Co. by which the estate of
 -his child was wasted so as to produce no greater dividend
 -than 5d. in the pound.
 -Mr. Dickson is now in possession of the Mill, Mill Land
 -and Store, on which his son swore before the commissioners,
