The statement in some of the papers, that Lord Roseberry settled upon his lady the damages awarded against Mr Healy Midway, with an addition of £5,000 is contradicted.

Captain Sir John Richardson, Bart. and Lieuts. Townsend and Edwards, are appointed to the impress service in Waterford.

It was rumoured in Dublin, we know on what authority, that the Chief Justiceship of the King's Bench is destined for Mr Plunket, and that Mr. H. D. Grady is also to have a judicial seat in another court.

Sunday, a man by name Reily, residing in Templebar, Dublin, having some dispute with his wife he forced her to the window in the attic story, and precipitated her into the street; he was immediately apprehended, and brought to the Head Police Office. The woman, in a shocking state, was conveyed to Mercer's Hospital.

Sunday last, at 2 o'clock, the Methodist New Chapel in George's Street, opened, and a most eloquent and impressive sermon was preached by that highly talented orator, Mr. Wood, to as respectable a congregation as we have ever seen assembled in this city.—After the sermon a collection was made, amounting to £56 6s. 10d. for the purpose mentioned in the advertisement, and donations have since been received from some that could not attend.—Benefactions will be still thankfully received and acknowledged.

We are glad to announce the safe arrival of our fellow citizen Major Charles Fitz Gerald, of the 13th Portuguese Infantry after an absence on actual service of nearly seven years, during which time, we had frequent occasion of noticing his name, as a distinguished and meritorious officer.

The Earl of Clare and his Mother the Countess, landed at Margate, from Ostend on Saturday last, and proceeded for London.
