ILLUMINATIONS.

The great brilliancy and variety of the illuminations in Dublin, would at any period, demand particular notice, but restricted in space, we can only mention the grand attraction of College Green. Those great national establishments, the Bank of Ireland, and the General Post Office, were eminently splendid.

Last night, in consequence of a requisition to that effect, by the Right Worshipful Mayor, this city was most brilliantly and generally illuminated, for the signal victories obtained by the British and allied arms.

By the Lord Lieutenant and Council of Ireland,
A PROCLAMATION.

WHITWORTH.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the present Session of Parliament, entitled, "An Act to authorize under present Circumstances the drawing out and embodying of the British and Irish Militia, or any part thereof," it is declared expedient under present Circumstances, in the present Situation of the Country, there being the prospect of an immediate war with France, to authorize the drawing out and embodying the Militia, or any part thereof; and it is thereby enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, under the present circumstances, at any time after the passing of the said Act, and before the Twenty-fifth Day of March, One thousand eight hundred and sixteen, to order and direct that the whole, or any part of the Militia of Ireland, shall be drawn out and embodied, in like manner, as the Lord Lieutenant, or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, is by the laws now in force in Ireland, empowered or authorized to order and direct, that the said Militia, or any part thereof, or any parts of the Militia of the several Counties in Ireland, or any Regiment or Battalion thereof, shall be drawn out and embodied in cases of actual Invasion, Rebellion, or Insurrection, or upon immediate danger thereof.

NOW WE, the Lord Lieutenant General and Chief Governor of Ireland, under the circumstances aforesaid, and in pursuance of the powers thereby vested in us, do, by and with the advice of a Privy Council, hereby order that the Militia Forces of Ireland, or such part of as we shall Judge necessary, shall be drawn out and embodied in pursuance of Warrant of the Lord Lieutenant or other Chief Governor or Governors of Ireland for the time being, at purpose.
