apparent good health and spirits, talked to rest cheerfully. On his appearance ig morning, he being asked by Mr. H. low he slept! Mr. W. replied he was nd had not enjoyed half an hour's rest He then added, he must " forego the friend, and go to town; a vast deal of ined to be done, and though he was init, he would struggle at it, and do the no happiness from these considerations." r related, that he had accompanied Mr. e proprietors of Drury Lane Theatre, the chair. The business was for the member of the committee, in the room sh Bradshaw, who had resigned. On r. Mr. W. scarcely opened his lips, and enseless state. looking with vacant melan no him. On their retiring from the erved to his friend, "You have now an g my incapacity for public business ; I could pretend to do business, but now ence, and I am only despised for my ion to various other facts related by Mr. monstrated in the strongest manner the of the deceased, he added, " Never d d on whose judgment and integrity I should y case, either a public or private, as a In these relations' had consulted him But," rejoined Mr. H "from what I ast person in the world to whom I would lightest subject for consideration !" ohn Weir was nest taken He deposed he service of the deceased for 27 years. ed to resion Wednesday night, about half apparent good health. Next morning ne down stairs, and go into his dressing uated on the ground floor, and looking was then half past nine o'clock, and the conduct for a considerable time past, he daily custom, went to bring some hot On reaching the door of the dressing ound it fastened, and immediately knocked wer, but retired, supposing his master was

On his going through the passage, howvate secretary of Mr. Whithread to whom larity of the dressing room being locked; r before known! The secretary replied, e to him, as he himself had been trying to receive some orders, when he found the inswer given either to his call or knocking! rmined upon peeping in at the window ch, having passed, and not distinguishing upright posture, they looked more narwith terror, the body of their lamented his blood. The witness instantly burst in ntered the room where he found the deoat cut from ear to ear, and the vital spark ished. Medical aid, though celled in, was haps, no instance of self destruction was e!-A razor, with which he effected the found by his side on the floor. The prie deceased confirmed the account given by t such was the terror and temporary conhe was thrown by his first view of the that he could not recollect whether he brough the door or by the window. This ed to many circumstances, which led him deceased had long laboured under strong ingement .- An eminent Physician proved caused the death of the decessed, and after prative evidence the coroner left it to the lether under the strong and respectable researd, they could for a moment hesitate upon his opinion and the exercise of his unpleasant instance of derangement had never come r a moment's consideration, concurred, and of Insamily.

e whole of these melancholy proceedings, anxiety and silent sorrow evinced by the not less excited by the deplorable event itge of commisseration for the afflicted lady. family, then beneath the same roof.

Priday and Saturday. Dover street ib the carriages of persons of distinche house of this lamented man, auxious h Lady Elizabeth Whithread, and by attention to alleviate those poignant her severe loss had occasioned. - Among ed and left their cards were, his Royal uke of Glouchester, Earl and Countess arquis of Lansdowne, Lord Grenville, Douglas, Lord Lauderdale, the Mark, the Duke of Bedford, Lord Milton, lun, Mr. Tierney, Mr. Horner. &c.

On Sunday last, the Lord Bishop of Limerick held an ordination in the Church of Trales, an appropriate and very impressive Sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Conyers, after which. Mr. J. Swindell was admitted to Deacon's, and the Rev. Messrs. L. George, M. Hewson, Sandes, and Cuffe, into Priest's orders.

The Attornies of Galway are to meet on to morrow " to take into consideration a business that materially affects their professional interests." A Petition was presented on Wednesday to the Lords, by the Marquis of Landsdowne, from the Autornies of Wexford, praying to be relieved from the Stamp Duty Tax, at the same time his Lordship presented another Petition from the Medical Gentlemen of Waterford, praying to be placed on the same footing with those of the same profession in England.

NEW THEATER ROYAL .- Last night we received a rich Dramatic treat at our Theatre, by the performance of the celebrated Comedy of " The Road to Ruin." and the Farce of " Lock and Key "-In the former, the part of "Old Dorrington" was finely personified by Mr. WM. FARREN, his playing is so chaste, and yet so much to the purpose, that he must never fail to excite universal applause .- Mr. HUNTLY, in " Young Dorrington," was admirable, and faithfully delineated the feelings of an agonised Son, who had ruined a fond father .- Mr T. SHORT, excited a great deal of mirth in the lively representation of "Goldfinch," Mrs. M'Cullecu, in the " Widow Warren." as usual excellent-and in fact every character seemed to be so well supported, that it was difficult to decide which was best - The Afterpiece went off with great eclat. The perforance announced for this night, is " The Haunted Tower," the pasts of " Lord William" and " Lady Eleanor," by Mr. W. SHORT, and Miss JOHNSTONE, with the beautiful Melo Drama of . The Mitter and his Men," " Grind off" the Miller, by Mr. HUNTLEY. - We regret that the pieceding nights the Houses have by no means answered our expectations, but we confidently expect, on this, and the succeeding nights, the exercion sof the Manager and the party, shall meet the encouragement due to such superior talent.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday morning, William Veitch: Esq. of the 48th foot, to Miss M'Adam, daughter of the Jace John M'Adam, Esq.

DIED.

At Laughton, King's County, on Thursday, at an advanced age, Mrs. Pepper, wife of Major Pepper; a Lady whose death is very deservedly lamented, by her numerous and respectable

On Tuesday, James, son of James Barry, of Rockstown in this County, Esq.

Theatre Royal. Paid

This Evening, (FRIDAY) July 14. WILL BE PERFORMED THE COMIC OPERA OF THE HAUNTED TOWER,

Lord William, Mr. SHORT, Baron of Oakland, Mr. W. FARREN, Mr. T. SHORT, Charles, Mr. N. JONES, Robert, Lady Elenor, Mrs. Johnson, MIS. C. M'CULLOCH, To which will be added the Melo Drama of

The MILLER and his MEN. Grind of (the Miller). .. Mr. HUNTLY, Claudine Mrs. C. M Cultoch. Limerick, Joly 14.

Welch Ton States.

Messrs. PATERSON & SPAIGHT,

ARE NOW LANDING Ex Pheonix, from Beaumorris, A CARGO OF

Best Ton Slates,

Which they will dispose of on reasonable Terms.

July 12.

This day is Published, in royal 8vo. with two Maps and twenty fine Engravings, price £1 5s. Boards, the Second Edition of

ILLUSTRATIONS Of the Scenery of KILLARNEY,

BUSH TAVERN,

FRANCIS-STREET, Opposite the Custom House Gate,

WILLIAM HIFFERNAN,

Late of the Commercial Buildings,

AS opened the above House, where Gentlemen can be Accommodated with Breakfasts, Dinners, and Support, on the most Reasonable Terms, with Well Aired L. merick, July 12.

A very Old Establishment TO BE LET, IN JOHN-STREET,

CONSISTING OF

A Good Dwelling House, Cellars, &c. Apply to R. Storey, No. 7, John-St.

A Fine will be expected, a long Term can be

Limerick, July 7.

Scythes & Reaping Hooks by Wholesule,

COMMISSION HARD WARE-HOUSE, No. 9, Patrick-Sireet,

CORNER OF ELLEN-STREET.

W. GLOVER,

ESPECTFULLY informs his Friends and the Public that he has laid in a considerable addition to his former stack, coasis ing of London made writing Desks, Backgammon Tables, Chess Men, Tage Measures. Toiler and House brushes, Telescopes, Spectacles, and Reading Glasses. Soaps and Perfumery, Working Boxes, Shaving and Dressing Cases, real Packwood Strops, Pocket and Memorandum Books, Whist Boxes, &c. &c.

Hardware, Cutlery, and Tin Goods of every description Imported direct from the best Manufacturers in Birmingham, Sheffield, Brestol, London, and Dubling those Goods for Variety, Quality, Utility, and Cheapness cannot be exceeded by any House in Ireland.

GLOVER,

WATCH AND CLOCK MAKER,

Next door to the Commission Ware House, PATRICK STREET.

Returns sincere thanks for the very marked prefeence he has received since his commencement in Business, is now happy, to reform his friends that He conducts it as usual in the most extensive manner, and has for Sale a good assortment of Watches, Clocks, and Jewellery, which will be warranted and Sold reasonable for ready Money.

As GLOVER is determined to devote his most particular attention to the repairing branch of His Busi ness, he is enabled to engage the Warches left with him for repairs; from his knowledge, having been instructed by the best master in Dublin, Gen lemea will find it their advantage to call at His House.

Limerick, July 11.

LIMERICK RACES. AUGUST, 1815.

(Newcastle Course.)

THURSDAY. August 10.

£50 for 2, 3, or 4 years old; two years old a feather, three years old 6st 9lb. four years and 7st 10.btwo mile heats; stakes or not at the will of the Owners ;-second herse to save his stake.

FRIDAY, M. Sweepstakes, 20gs. 10ft. 60gs added by the Steward, two mile heats. I engage 6 of s. to the Wiveer. DENIS O'BRIEN. June 10, 1815.

(Clused) 25, Denzill st. Dublen, Mr Fosbery's gr. c. Robin-adair, Mr. Lyone's at e Biacklegs, 7 13 Mr. Royse's ch. f. Mermaid,

Mr. J. R. Hunter's gr. c. Sharp-Shooter 7 13 by Fire-Lock, dam by Delphini,