 respect. The British soldiers are very much respected on account of their good behaviour, as they have not disgraced themselves by robbing and pillaging from the unfortunate nations much to be pitied on account of their

A great number of wounded soldiers from Belgium have been received into the Royal Hospital at Haslar, during last week.

We understand the wounded soldiers at Waterloo who could not be moved without imminent danger, and so many cases were never before known in a British army, were successfully placed in a tent upon temporary field bedsteads.

Captain Elton, of the Greys, son of Sir Abraham Elton, had two horses shot under him, in the battle of Waterloo, as he was taking messages from the Earl of Uxbridge to the Duke of Wellington.

The second division of the British forces on return from Canada had not sailed on the 17th June; but was ready, and expected to depart immediately. It consists of the following arrived also on Thursday in the Downs. Both the officers and privates are in high health and spirits, and quite elated at the hope of joining their former great commander. This reinforcement, in the whole, will amount to 9000 effective soldiers.

Sir George Murray and Sir Thomas Brisbane, are expected to join at Ostend, where the troops are to be brigaded.

 eloquent sermon was preached by the Rev. N. Garstin, from Mat. 28, v. 20. "Lo, I am with you always even unto the end of the world."

The recent creations of the Earls of Limerick, Clancarty, Enniskillen, Dalhousie, Aboyne, and Glasgow, as Peers of the United Kingdom, will occasion no fewer than six vacancies in the Irish and Scots' representations.

A General Order has been circulated throughout the army during the present month, enclosing the Prince Regent's Proclamation, by which all soldiers serving for a limited period, are directed to be retained for a further term of three years, after the expiration of such period.
