

... No. he simply said, he would avow himself had seen, or any thing which he either producing the one, nor by asserting simply denying your reflection on his want nor well founded, inflict any punishmortifying an insult? Reason by analogy. am a liar, in a certain assertion, will my adducing circumstances to prove I was not under such a charge? I will thereby erve the imputation, but must not I, to ga, and to satisfy the public opinion, seek my wounded honor?

d a message, and was called on to state would it be deemed a sufficient excuse, that he was responsible for what he said, or what ted of him to have been said, without vowing what that was, or that either was re was but one plain and obvious course to That was (in case you had been approached er,) to call on you either to produce some your asperity, or if you could not do so, nit you had acted under an erroneous impress your regret.

d to doubt the courage of any man; if I f Mr. Peel in that way, would not be raised y his conduct on the present occasion.— charge which, he has given ample evidence might have led you to the field; but in as compelled you to follow him to the n a transaction in which I know I was not the public, but eventually might be awfully aker, I acted with the most mature delibe-am as competent to form as just a concluect as Sir Charles Saxton, our countrymen, whatever that judgment shall be, I should be take the entire responsibility on myself, out without once respecting your feeling

Your's &c
GEO. LIDWILL.

ll, Esq.

(No. I.)
on did himself the honor of calling on Mr ng, for the purpose of asking a few minutes im, on the subject of their conference of otunately finding him from home, is under nbling him with this note, to request he may in as Mr. Lidwill returns to his hotel, by him at Mr. Ouley's, No. 4, in Ely Place, axton will remain, in expectation of Mr.

pt 1, 1815.

ill, Esq.
Kildare street

(No. II.)
D'CONNELL,
on called on me twice while I was absent at time he left a note to say, when he would e, he would again call on me. I expect e, and therefore write to you, to have horses oin the first field adjoining Celbridge in d an immediate hour for meeting, which ink he is now coming to require.

Your's,
G. L.

Connell, Esq.

(No. III.)
FRIEND,
please; I only think the County Kildare place—I care not wherethere. Every thing PEDITIOUSLY.
ld be less alarmed if we postpone it till just as you please. I will remain HERE.
Your's,
D. O'CONNELL.

—Friday. sq.

of circumstances with which the public are l, Mr O'Connell and Mr. Lidwill were lover to keep the peace by the Lord Chief rity of his Lordship, in cases of this kind, o his Majesty's dominions. The Gentlemen en in the first instance arrested by Mr She-subsequently consigned them to the juris-ief Justice.

FEAT.—A fact that ought to be generally act within these few days has been made to n in the tower, with the best ox beef and under 4d. per pound.—Globe.

in dispersing, and completely driving them out of the town.
The Fair of O'Brien's Bridge, yesterday, exhibited another seen of riot—we hear several were severely hurt—and a woman shot through the thigh.
At the fair of Eonis on Monday last, a gang of pickpockets, eleven in number, who had made themselves very troublesome there, were arrested, and lodged in goal by J. J.
Fitzgerald, Esq the Vice Prevost One Gentlemen had his pocket picked of 40 or £50. and many other depredations were committed by them—none of the stolen property was found.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—We congratulate the public on the important improvement in the preparation of Hemp and Flax, by the use of Mr. Lee's valuable machinery, which has been introduced into this city by Mr Peter Bernard of Cork, whose zeal and assiduity deserves our warmest acknowlegements—Mr. Lee's mode of preparation is particularly adapted to this country, the rich grounds of which are so well suited to the culture of those valuable articles.—We sincerely hope that the landed interest may with a laudable zeal, use their effects in its support.—We understand that the machinery is to be seen at work at the stores of Messrs Mark, Fisher, and Mark, Henry street.

DUEL.—Friday morning, a meeting took place at Chalk Farm, between Mr. R. L. a gentleman residing at the west end of the town, and Mr. M. D. of the Royal Navy The parties had passed the preceding evening at the house of a friend, in Hattongarden, where a dispute arose between them respecting a lady. They each exchanged a brace of pistols, when Mr. L's second shot struck Mr. D. on the bridge of the nose; fortunately, however, he received but a slight injury. The seconds then interfered, and the explanation having taken place, the parties shook hands, and returned to town good friends

FATAL DUEL PREVENTED.—Thursday se'nnight a quarrel took place between Mr. L. S. and Mr. I. of Grattan St.
Dublin. Both Gentlemen sent messages to each other.— One wished to fight on the island of Dalkey, the other at Lambay. The message to Mr. S. was by the penny post, and fortunately Mrs S. opened the note, and immediately repaired to Sheriff Smyth's house. He knew the value of such a life as Mr. S.'s. would be irreparable, if he should unfortunately fall; and as the note expressed they were to fight at six paces distance, one or both should fall, the sheriff immediately went in search of both, and luckily found them.— He bound them over in heavy penalties to keep the peace.— We hear the gentlemen, not satisfied, intend to take a trip to Holyhead to settle the quarrel.

THE LATE MR. HAWTHORN.—Information has been sworn that a woman who kept a cellar in Francis street, Dublin, and who was said to be married to, or in keeping with a man of the name of Byrne, and answering to the description given of the woman who received payment of the English post bills which Mr Hawthorn had when he was first missed, had quitted her lodgings about that period and has not since been heard of.

THEATRE.—On referring to our Advertising Columns we perceive the opening of our Theatre, announced for this Evening, with the admired Comedy of the "Soldier's Daughter" with the Farce of "Raising the Wind," and a variety of other Entertainments.—In addition to his former Company, Mr. TALBOT, has brought with him Mr. and Mrs. B. SMYTHSON, and Miss DALRYMPLE, all from the Theatre Royal, Haymarket, London.—This accession of strength and talent to the company, and Mr. TALBOT'S unceasing exertions to gratify the Public, will, we doubt not, ensure to him that support, which he so justly merits

MARRIED.

By the Rev. John Pinkerton, in this city, Captain Moore, of the Royal Artillery, to Miss Hamilton, daughter of Col.
Hamilton, dec. lately commanding the Artillery in this gar.

DIED.

On Friday last, at New Lawn, in this County, the seat of his son George Gubbins, Esq. Joseph Gubbins, Esq. of Maidstone, in his 74th year.
In Cork, Mr. Ambrose Sheppard.

New Wheat from 1s. 4d. to 1s. 6d.

Price of Butter—108s.—104s.—96s.—88st.

MR. COOKE, Paid

MAKES this mode of returning his sincere thanks to the inhabitants of Limerick and its Vicinity, for the liberal encouragement he has received since his arrival.—He deeply regrets, that he cannot indulge his own feelings, by allowing his Company to perform on Monday Evening, as intended, for the Charities of this City.—The opening of the Theatre deprives him of this gratification.
Sept. 9.

Five Miles of the town of Limerick.
Proposals to THOMAS O'REILLY Esq. Glocester Place, Portman Square, London, or to ED.
WALSH, Esq. 6, Upper Dominick Street, Dublin, his Solicitor.

Any information which a Purchaser may consider necessary, respecting the Lettings and Tenures of these LANDS, will be given by by Mr. JAMES O'MARA, of Toomavara, near Nenagh.
Limerick, Sept. 8, 1815.

PAID
AUCTION.

To be Sold by Auction

AT No. 4, PATRICK STREET,

This, and the succeeding Days, until the whole is Sold off.

A VARIETY of Gold and Silver Watches; Gold Chains, Seals and Keys; Fancy Gold Rings; Earrings and Bronches, set with Diamonds, Emerald, Amethyst, Topaz, Jesson Pearls, Cornelian's &c &c.— Best Plated Sheffield Ware, consisting of Tea and Coffee U-ns, Dishes and Covers, Liqueur and Court Frames, Candlesticks, Branch's Bread Baskets, Tea Sets, Ladies' Work Boxes, Cohen's Pencils, &c, with a Variety of other Articles too tedious to mention.
Sale to commence at Twelve o'Clock.
F. ARMSTRONG, Auctioneer
Limerick, Sept. 8.

TO BE SOLD,

THE INTEREST IN THE House, No. 8, Charlotte's Quay,

On which there has been a large sum of money lately expended

Immediate Possession can be given.

Application to THOMAS BAKER, Robert Street.
Limerick, Sept. 8.

To the Noblemen and Gentlemen of Landed Property in Ireland.

WANTS a Situation, an unmarried Man, 31 Years of age as Factor—He has been formerly in that Situation, can get the most undoubted Security if wanted, and can be well recommended—He is acquainted with Improvements in general, and can keep Estate Books on the most accurate plan.
N. B. Letters (post paid) addressed to Mr. WOOD-BURN, Dalwinter Hown, by Dumfries, North Britain, will be instantly attended to, Not to be repeated.
September 8.

TO BE LET,

THE VICARIAL TITHES OF THIS YEAR

OF Corcomohide, Dromcolloher & Castletown,

Application to be made to BRYAN M'MAHON, Esq.
Register's Office, William St.; or, Rev. W. MORONY, Kilfenora, Eumistymon.
September 1, 1815.

TO THE LADIES, &c.

Fashionable Auction of Haberdashery, Silk Me cery, &c. &c.

In the Matter of } THE Sale is now going on at ELINOR O'CONNOR, } Bankrupt's House No. 31, a Bankrupt } Patrick Street, and will continue until the entire of the Goods are disposed of—They consist of Every Article in the HABER-DASHERY line—Seracets, Satins, Tabinets, Silk Handkerchiefs, Bombazines, Crapes, Hosiery Gloves, Peabumery, Laces, Veils, Pelisse Cloths, Muslins, Calicoes, Jewels, y, Mats, Caps, Bonnets, and many other Articles too numerous to insert.
The Sale to commence each day at 12 o'Clock.
September 1, 1815. CONNELL, Auctioneer Those indebted to the Estate are requested to pay in the amount of their different bills to the Assignee a Miss O'CONNOR'S (whose stay in town will be but short) otherwise they will be put into the hands of the Agent to the Commission.