Liverpool, "That it has been the invariable object of the British Government and of their allies, to support, and on every suitable occasion to assert, the principles of Religious Toleration and Liberty; and that, in their recent communications with the government of France, they have brought forward these principles as the foundation of their policy and of their just expectations; and that they, therefore, are using their best efforts to arrest the progress of evils which they most deeply deplore."

On Sunday last, a large mob, attended by thirty cars, went to the lands of Ballyvara, in the liberties of this City, broke into the house of Mr. Thomas M'Grath, and beat him and his son desperately, and attempted to carry off by force all the corn and furniture of said M'Grath. Information being brought to the Rev. Jas. Crampton, a Peace Officer, he in the most prompt and spirited manner, with a party of the Cavan, quartered at Annacotty, proceeded and fortunately secured ten of the ruffians whom he safely lodged in Jail.

Colonel Warburton arrived on Sunday last, at his fathers Palace, the Lord Bishop of Limerick, after an absence of several years in the service of his King and Country.

MARVELLOUS LOTTERY.

THE Public are respectfully informed that a small but capital Lottery of only 5,000 Tickets, with TWO immense Prizes of £50,000, &c &c 3 per Cent Consols and Money, must all be drawn

On THURSDAY, the 7th December,

In every preceding Lottery of 5,000 Tickets, ONE Capital only of £20,000 was thought to form a wonderful Scheme;—now, the same number of Tickets has to boast of twice the number of Capitals and each Capital £50,000.

In consequence of the many Disappointments experienced last week from the Scarcity of Tickets and Shares (as some of the Offices were without any on Thursday evening,) although the Lottery consisted of 15,000 Tickets, and considering

How few the Tickets are in this Lottery—only 5,000!

How great the magnitude of the Prizes—2 of £50,000. &c!

How impossible to supply every Adventurer with a whole Ticket!

Mr. BISH, the Contractor, has felt it his paramount duty to a generous Public to endeavour to meet their wishes; and has therefore determined, that All the 5,000 Tickets shall be divided into Shares; but as the Scheme is so arranged that two HALF Shares must have FOUR chances to gain £25,000, two chances to gain £50,000 whilst a whole Ticket could only have had two chances to gain a £50,000 Prize, he trusts the plan will meet universal approbation.

TICKETS AND SHARES,

Are now Selling by

Michael Goggin, Thomas Street; Edw. Bernard, Francis Street; S. B. Goggin, George's Street; Andrew J. Watson, Patrick Street.

By the Lord Lieutenant & Council of Ireland. A PROCLAMATION.
