roups each : those serving abroad are to have a op, as a depot for recruiting.

ductions hitherto effected have extended only to the torps, the numerical strength of which in rank and beneath the required standard; the men fit for seronging to such corps were turned over to the s still kept up, so that no diminution of any magwas made in the total strength of the army. In the nature, considerable progress will be made towards soent military peace establishment. A total amount 10 men will be dismissed.

said, that the 16th regiment of foot, vacant by the in Colonel, Sir George Prevost, is to be given to seneral Mackie Gordon by whose promotion the cy of the York chasseurs becomes disposable, for hat distinguished Officer, Major-General Sir Denis

2d bat, of the 88th were disembodied at Clare Castle day last-The effective men, consisting of nearly 150, in their regt, in France. draft of 100 men from the 2d bat, 81th regt. which leave this garrison in Feb. to join the lat bat, in in Wednesday last received counter orders - It is suphat the first bat, are on their return to Burope, 2d West York regt whose head quarters are at Newn this county, have received orders to embark forth-Cork, for England. All their detachments in the al Kerry, are to be releved by equal numbers from a regt, with the exception of Listowel, which is to of sen track and file less than the present detachment. detechnism of the 74th regt, occupying Hospital, Kilcommilleck, and Broff, are to be relieved by part of the t from this garrison.

order has been within the last week issued, to reduce my for recipies for the army, from 10 Guineas to Six ; and the lowest standard to be 5 feet 5 inches.

CULTURN STREET, STREET

ay the General Quarter Sessions of this county ended keele, where, and in this city, there were nearly 2000 ils disposed of by the Assistant Barrister Lloyd. The at Nenagh ended on Saturday-there were 2500 es entered and nearly 2000 decrees granted.

(says a correspondent) a melancholy fact, that the manors, estates, and possessions of the Wellesley are brought to the hammer, and to be knocked down suctionier. That the old castle, built by King John n, the yellow tower, the monastry, and the church, se sold at public cant, with all the baronial privileges, and jurisdictions incident to the maner and its courts mwell battered the walls of Trim; the present pro-sell their ruins and their foundation.

Den a Browne, one of the members for Mayo, has the mode of alleviating the severe pressure of the rent tenantry which is somewhat peculiar He has not his rents, but he purchases corn from his tenantry at higher than that which they could obtain in the

In fact, his rent is paid in corn, and he allows at of 5s, for a quantity which in Westport would not 3s 6d, or perhaps so much. This arrangement present alleviation and, at the same time, secures to the possible advantage which may accrue from any rise in the price of produce.

John Bennett has planted 1200 trees on the lands of er, in this county, the estate of the Bari of Limerick. Wednesday last, John Laffan, Esq Surveyor of Excise, by Mr O'Shaughnessy, and a party of the Leitrim from Killaloe, proceeded to the lands of Ballyvara, county, where they surprised an extensive distillery, at ask, and arrested John Hays. Thomas Hays, Mischael, and James Hays, found at work in the distillery-the were ladged in the King's stores in this city. Donovan, another of those charged with a conspiracy rder that active Maginiate, Francis Woodley, Esq. aken at Tallow, last Sunday se'nnight, by Henry leson, E.q. a Magistrate of the county of Waterford, insmitted to Waterford Jail.

Mahon, Esq on Thursday, after a long search, appre-, near Kilkee, Patrick, John, and Daniel Whelan, for duction of a girl of that neighbourhood from her out nine months ago a man of the name of Timothy y was murdered at a place called Sunday's Well, near a. A person of the name of Wm. Barry immediately ed the country, and was not heard of till last week, in consequence of information he received, Mr Hewigh constable, proceeded to a house near Leitrim Bridge, where he found him. He was fully committed to nd is to take his trial at the next assizes.

- They are lodged in Ennis Jail.

the night of Sunday se'nnight, the Roman Catholic at Carrick-on-Suir was robbed of about twenty four s in money, deposited there, as a place of security, by dly Seciety of Tradesmen. On the following evening, mon was detected in endeavouring to pass one of the to taken; he was accordingly secured, and committed guard-house for that night -The next day he was ned before Pierse O'Donnell, Esq a Magistrate for sunty of Tipperary, when he acknowledged that he and r soldier were privy to the robbery which he said, immitted by a young lad, about 17 years of age, who the Chapel by a back window, forcing himself in on two iron bars. There were fifty miness in gold

Forged Stumps .- The vig lance and activity of our Police in pursuing this species of delinquency to its extreme, are entitled to the warmest commendation of the community. They have not ceased their exertions in exploring it throughout all its ratifications and dependent branches, and the consequences are new detections and new committals.

Thursday last, Mr. Gerald Hope, of Sackville street, and a Mrs. Anne walsh, of No. 74, Abbey-street, Dublin, Silk-dyer, underwent final examinations at the Head Office, under charges connected with Forged Stamps; the latter, more particularly, prepared a material, liquid blue, used in colouring Law Stamps. Both those persons were appreheaded on Tuesday evening last by Mr. Farrel, Chief Peace Officer, and were detained at the Head Police Office until this day, for such a substantiation of the facts as the Magistrites conceived was necessary to warrant their committal, a ben conclusive testimony having been obtained to sustain the charges preferred, they were accordingly committed to Newgate to abide their trial .-- Patriot . Committed to Clonnel Jail, by Croker Wright, Esq. Thomas and John Quinlan, charged with conspiring to murder the Rev John Hamilton.

By Richard Wilcoeks, Bsq. Michael Stack, charged with the murder of Wm. Meany ; and Pat. Mara, charged with disorderly conduct

By the Rev. John Hamilton, Dan. Conor, Mich. Conor, Thes, Waters, Ben Waters, and Tim. Cleary, charged with having intheir custody an illicit still,

By the Rev John Hamilton, John Crotty, Dan. Feban, Edward Kilkeary Denis Hooley, James Hooley, T. Hooley, Michael Maher, Henry Doogan, Patrick White, and Daniel Herrick charged with administering unlawful oaths, appearing in arms by night, and conspiring to murder.

BIRTH.

Last night, in George's street, the Lady of Herman J. Poe, Esq. of a son,

On the 15th inst. the lady of Wm. Moore, of Sapperton, Co. Waterford, Esq. of a son.

At Brussels, the ledy of the Hou. Martin Hawke, of a MARRIED.

At Aughnacloy, W. E. Crofton, Esq Lieutenant in the 50th foot, to Alicia, youngest daughter of Thos. Moore, o the Bawn. (.o. Tyrone, Esq.

In Dublin, John Young, Esq. of London, to Margaret, eldest daughter of the late Edmond Rorke, Esq

In Lancashire, Walter Fawkes, Esq. of Yorkshire, to Mrs. Butler, widow of the Hoo and Rev. P. Butler, and daughter of the late John Vernon, Esq. of Clontarf Casale, County Dublim.

Captain Adam Hogg, of the Bombay infantry, to Misa Mary Duncan, daughter of the late Alexander Duncan, Esq of Bengal, and niece of the late Governor Duncan, of

At Lismore, Dr. Justin M'Carthy, R. N. to Miss P. M. Courtenay, daughter of John Courtenay, Esq of Lismore

Nicholas Loughnan, Esq. of Kilkenny, banker, to Ellen, second daughter of the late Wm. Strang, Esq of Meldrum, near Cashei.

On Saturday morning last, Robert J. Gunson, Esq. to Miss Sheppard, daughter to Mr. Geo. Sheppard, formerly of this city, chandler.

At Plymouth, Stephen Hastings Atkins, Fsq. youngest son of Major Atkins of Mailow, to Elizabeth, eldest daughter of the late Dowell O'Reilly, of the Heath, Queen's county,

In Bellast, W. Corry, Esq Barrister at Law, to Eliza

daughter of the Rev. W Bruce, D D.

Peter Kead, Esq of Courtstown, Co Kildare, to Beatria, daughter of the Rev. John Walsh, and grand daughter to Claudius Cole Hamilton, Esq.

At Loughres, Thos. Kingsmill, Esq. son of the late George Kingsmill, of Kilkenny, Esq.

At Ballingarry, Mrs. Ryan, wife of John Ryan, Esq. very much lamented.

Miss Lucy Shelly, second daughter of the late Right Hon. Sir John Shelly, Batt.

In Ennis, Mrs. Lyons, relict of the late Mr. John Lyons, At Carrigles, county Waterford, Mrs. Barron, relict of the late Mathew Barron.

> ENNIS SCHOOL.

Vacation ends on the 28th Inst. January 22d, 1816

NEW NOVELS, By BURNEY, OWENSON, GENLIS, &c. \ Printed for H. COLBURN, London; and sold by John CUMMING, Dubliu; and may be bought or hired at all respectable Libraries.

1. TALES of FANCY. By MISS BURNEY, Author of CLARENTINE, TRAITS OF NATURE, GERALDINE FAUCONBERG. &C. 2. CLARENTINE, by the same Author, 2nd Edition,

3 Vols. 21s. 3 RHODA, A NOVEL. By the ingenuous Author of " Things he their Right Names," and " Plain Sense."

and infidelity, and consequently subversive of all our existing political, religious and social Institutions.

Three Volumes of this interesting Miscellany, commencing with the important zera of January, 1814, are now completed, price 14s, each, half bound, embellished with Portraits of Lord BYRON, ROBERT

Souther, Beg Poet Laurent, and Thos. CAMPBELL, Esq. and a Number is regularly published on the first of every month, price 2s. which may be instantly forwarded to friends and relations abroad (to whom it must prove a most desirable present) by applying to any Postmaster. This Magazine has already arquired a high literary character, men of the first emisence having, from its commencement, been strenuous in enriching its pages with their communications; and, independent of being a faithful chronicle of the great political events of the times, and an accurate record of domestic and family history, it forms a complete register of every novelly in the arts, sciences, and letters, equally acceptable to the scholar and the philosopher, to the man of leisure and the man of business; as will be evident from the following Table of

1. Original Correspondence on a variety of Subjects.

2 Memoirs of eminent Persons, Living and Deceased 3. Original Letters, Auecdotes, & curious Fragments.

4. Poetry, original and selected 5. New Publications, with Critical Remarks and Ex-

6. Intelligence, Foreign and Domestic, Literary and

7. Review of the Fine Arts-New Music and the Drams.

8 Transactions of Public Societies, Foreign and Do-

10 New Patents-New Acts and Parliamentary Re-

9. University Proceedings.

11. Historical Digest of Political Events.

12. Remarkable Incidents, Births, Marriages & Deaths

Abroad and at home. 13. Reports, Agricultural, Chemical, Meteorological, and Commercial, including Bankrupts, Dividends, Markets, State of the Funds, Exchanges, Companies' Shares, &cc. &cc. The friends of literature and science also, who may occasionally be desirous of presenting to the Public any opinions or discoveries connected with their respective pursuits, will always ment with the utmost attention and impartiality; such communications to be addressed for the Editor (free of expense) to the Publisher, Mr Colburn, Public Library, Conduit Street, London.

The Number to be published by the 1st of Feb. will contain a striking Likeness of the Rev. GBORGE CRABBE, L. L. B. Author of " The Village," " The Borough," &c. And those who intend to commence with the new Volume, are requested to address their orders to their respective Booksellers on or before the January 23, 1816. 25th Instant.

COMPLETE HISTORY 230

CAMPAIGNS The state of the s

Spain, France, and the Netherlands.

Just Published by H. Colburn, London, and Sold by all Booksellers,

An AUTHENTIC NARRATIVE of the INVASIONS of FRANCE in 1814 & 1815. By M. DE BEAUCHAMP, Author of "The H story of the War of La Vendee" The 2d Edition, comprising a circumstantial Detail of the Battle of Waterloo, by a French Staff Officer ; in 2 Vols. 8vo. Price 21s. bds.

The Battle of Waterloo, separately, 4s.

HISTORY of the WAR in SPAIN and PORTUGAL

from 1807 to 1814. By General SARRAZIN.

In 1 Vol. 8vo. illustrated with a Map, exhibiting the Routes of the various Armies. Price 12s bds

A more luminous view of the great scenes which occurred in Spain and Portugal will not easily be found.

These Works form together a desirable accompaniment to Labaume's Russian Campaign. The political and military annals of nations have certainly never supplied such interesting subjects for the contemplation of mankind as are united in the description of this astonishing epoch, in which are exhibited the most memorable events and the most affecting incidents that were ever produced by the sword of war or recorded by the pen of history. January 23, 1816.

INTERESTING WORKS. 238 Lately published by HENRY COLBURN, Lonlan . and sold be all Rookeellers. . []

of

118