the Medal which is conferred by the Prince Regent upon every officer, non commissioned officer, and soldier of the British army, present on that memorable day.—The medal is silver, very neatly finished—has "George Prince Regent" on the right side, and on the reverse "an Eagle" in the centre the words "Wellington, Waterloo, June 18, 1815:" on the rim, the name of the individual whom the medal is presented to is engraved.

WATERFORD, MAY 4.—On Tuesday last, about noon, Michael Landers, bailiff, went to the house of James Keeffe, near Stradbally, in this Co. and arrested him for debt. Keeffe and his son immediately armed themselves with a pitchfork and a stane; the bailiff ran, but was followed by the two Keeffes, who wounded and mangled him in so shocking a manner that his life is in the most serious danger. In fact they left him as dead, and threw him into a pool with circumstances too abominable for recital. He lies now in an hospital in this city.—What gives this outrage a hue of more than ordinary atrocity is, that the debt for which Keeffe was arrested, arose from rent due upon an old lease of ground let at a very low rate, which rent he would neither pay, nor surrender the ground. The fourth half year was nearly due, and, after removing his cattle, he had fairly set at defiance his landlord, a Gentleman highly distinguished for general benevolence, and for the most marked indulgence towards his tenantry.—Landers, the victim of this horrid barbarity, has a wife and six young children, all thus thrown into a state closely bordering upon starvation. We would anxiously recommend a subscription for the purpose of alleviating their unmerited sufferings. Charity is the duty of all, but we conceive landholders to be particularly interested in this measure.

Yesterday morning, about 11 o'clock, Thomas M'Cheane, of this city, Esq. on his way to Kilkenny in a chaise, with part of his family, was robbed of his watch (gold) and a small sum of money, at Kileigh, about ten miles from this city, by two men rather genteely dressed, well mounted, and armed with pistols. Shortly after, ——— Brenan, Esq. Inspector of Hearth and Window duties in the baronies of Gowran and Ida, travelling in a chaise, robbed of his watch (silver) and of 40s. in silver. They took a fancy to his snuff-box which they supposed of gold, but declined it, upon finding that it was merely washed. After robbing Mr. Brenen, they detained a man driving pigs, but as he had but little money they allowed him to pass. Intelligence of these matters was quickley brought to the Deputy Mayor of Waterford by Mr. John Carroll, head constable of Ballybale, and parties of our constables were immedespatched on the Ross road, in which direction strangers answering the description were observed shortly after the robberies. The robbers are supposed to be two men who escaped from Maryborough gaol, and for the apprehension of whom a large reward has been offered.
