SUPERIOR EDITIONS.
OF THE COMMON PRAYER.

GRIERSON AND POWER,
HIS MAJESTY'S PRINTERS,

HAVE just completed two very superior Editions of a Quarto Church Prayer Book, one a medium size, the other a royal, and a few copies on fine English wove royal paper, as a specimen of beautiful Printing. These Editions of the Church Prayer Book have not been excelled in point of execution, in either London, Oxford, or Cambridge, and have the additional advantage of containing, besides the Common Prayer and Ordinary Services, the Constitutions and Canons Ecclesiastical which the English Editions do not contain.—The have also numbered each Page at the bottom, and have prefixed an Index, never before introduced into any Edition of the Prayer Book.

GRIERSON and POWER have also printed a beautiful small Pocket Edition of the Common Prayer, in Nonparel Type, equal, if not superior, to any in the United Kingdom, to which they have likewise annexed an index, and numbered each page at the bottom.

They have two Editions of an Octavo Common Prayer Book, printed on a large and clear Type, in medium and royal paper.

Besides the above, they have printed a large number of an 18mo. Edition of the Common Prayer, most of which have been purchased by the Association for discountenancing Vice; and a Stereotype Edition of the New Testament in 12mo.; and have now in the Press an addition of twenty thousand copies of an Octavo Bible, and ten thousand of an 18mo. Prayer Book.

It is their intention to print the several Editions of each Prayer Book, Bible, and Testament, that have been generally imported into this country from England and Scotland; by which means Booksellers will have the advantage of making a selection of such as they may require, and on better terms than they could be imported.

Orders for the above received at the office of this Paper.
