

the personal friends of the members of the house ward with unexampled liberality, and immediately d one hundred thousand pounds, to enable an antici- dend being made to the creditors.

last, a Mr Neil Douglas was convicted before the urt of Justiciary, at Edinburgh, of fraud and wilful n. He had represented himself as related to Lord and as possessing great influence with his Lordship; Hay, his secretary; and Mr. Cobb, the secretary to House, by which means he swindled Mr. Thomson, trick, out of £50 by pretending to procure for writer's situation in India; also one Henry Swans- Glasgow, out of £10, by engaging to procure him as messenger to the admiralty; and two other of different sums of money. In defence it was hat the prisoner and Lord Melville were second that he was insane; and that previous to his appri- friends had contemplated putting him into the asylum. A witness being interrogated, said, that e prisoner talked incoherently, he appeared at the hese transactions in a sound state of mind. The d him guilty. The Court sentenced him to 12 risonment in Glasgow gaol.

painful duty to state that Coolrairie Church was o on the night of the 16th instant, by some sacri- rains, who carried off two gowns, and as much of of the pew seats as they could detach, together id of colours deposited there by Colonel Brooke h Regiment. Some part of the plunder was found rning in an adjoining wood. Mr. Brooke of e, contiguous to whose demesne the Church stands, ery possible exertion to discover the perpetrators ost audacious outrage. We anxiously hope such d impious violation of religion and the laws will overtaken by the arm of justice — Erne Packet.

From the Philadelphia Gazette.
g effects of False Honour—In consequence of rignating in a ball room, two young men of this meeting in Jersey, on Thursday last. They were y what is erroneously termed their friends! The s of death were placed in their hands by those pre- ds. The contents were discharged without effect. were reloaded—and again they proved harmless rty. Thrice they were loaded, and thrice proved Here let the reader for a moment pause. Let et honour, if you please so to call it, ponder over f infatuation and wickedness. Two youths per- up together in friendship, are suddenly converted y enemies. Ill advised and unrestrained by re- ry are hurried to the field of death, and their concernedly look on their attempts at each others Thirsting for each other's blood, the instruments on are again loaded, and again discharged without fth time, with the same result! A sixth! A and a youth of eighteen is sent into eternity!— ceed no farther; the heart bursting subject, is left s reflections.—Philadelphia Paper.

ILLEGAL DISTILLATION.

Friday night, or rather on the morning of y the 24th inst. a party of 12 Dragoons, Mr. Richard Hannan, Surveyor of Ex- panied by Messrs. Emerson and Harly, cers, proceeded to the Mountain of Gur- , about four miles to the north west of l, with the intention to seize on a large ll, which they found at full work. Up- 000 gallons of Pot-ale were destroyed, ll was got on cars for the purpose of onveyed to the Custom-house. The who had previously sought to defend the ten first attacked, now rushed upon the great numbers. The Dragoons fired ammunition, without effect: at one time were surrounded by the mob, and it is ey were required by the owners to de- ath from whom their information con- still was derived. Three of the Dra- severely injured, being left by the as- hey thought nearly dead—the remain- arly escaped, some with deep cuts and l more without their helmets, &c.— eference was that the seizure was ineffe- country people succeeded in rescuing l bearing it off in tumultuous triumph. the facts such as communicated to us on the spot. Our correspondent adds, nesday (the day on which he wrote), ev. Dr. Murray arrived in that part of and proceeding immediately to the l of Coolduiriah, snaked through Theatre as reported—Mrs. Edwin, who is engaged to go with Holman, to America, has refused to come, unless Mr. Jones takes the New Theatre, and Mr. Liston declares, he is not engaged for the Old House—Mr. Webb, the famous performer of Irish Characters, and so much admired as a singer of Irish Songs, is the first London Actor, who makes his appearance on Saturday night.—Report says Mr. Jones offered great terms for the New House, which Mr. Talbot refused—The offer was Five Pounds per night, Mr. Talbot's demand was Fifteen Guineas per night, which Mr. Jones said he could not afford to pay. Query—What sum does Mr. Jones think Limerick can enable him to afford to repair the Old House, four years in ruin, with a handsome New Theatre open to oppose him, when he could not give Fifteen Guineas for that handsome Theatre, and no other in opposition?

Mr Michael Ryan, of the house of Edmond Ryan & Sons, of this city, has been appointed Vice Consul for his Sardinian Majesty at this Port, and also agent to the French Consulate for this Port, and the Ports in the County Clare.

EXPORTS.

Royal George, for Lisbon—84 firkins 49 cwt. butter, 11 firkins and 10 kegs pigstongues, Mark, Fisher & Mark—140 do. 83 do. do. J. J. M Namara—110 do. 65 do. do. E. Ryan & Sons—112 do. 67 do. db. Timothy Ryan—80 do. 47 do. do. R. Rodgers.

BIRTHS.

At Harcourt Lodge, near Trim, on the 18th inst, the lady of J Lightburne, Esq. of a son.
In Thomas Street, on Friday morning, the Lady of Edw. Parker, Esq. of a son and daughter.

MARRIED.

On Sunday evening last, David Kelly, Esq. to the agreeable Miss Barry, daughter of James Barry, Esq. of Rockstown, in this county.
On Saturday last, by the Rev. Wm. Dunn, Robert S. Shaughnessy Esq. to Miss Maria Patten, both of Charleville.
On Thursday last, at Rathcoire, in the county of Meath Alexander Andrews, a Captain in the Rifle Brigade, eldest son of Thomas Andrews, Esq. of Merrion square, to Catherine Margaret, second daughter of the late James Bynd, of Hyndville, in the county of Meath.

DIED.

On the 6th instant, at the house of her uncle, Gen Lloyd, Royal Arsenal, Woolwich, Anne, eldest daughter of the late John Lyons, Esq. of St. Austin's, near Lymington, Hampshire
At Bradford, Yorkshire, the Rev. J. Crosse, M. A. Vicar of that place. To a person who visited him on the day of his death, he said, "I am dying, Sir; but death is nothing to me; it is only going from one room into another, but of indescribable bliss; he has left eight thousand pounds towards the spreading of the Gospel in England and Ireland.
Mrs Hoare, wife of Henry Hoare, Esq. of Mitchamgrove, in Clonmel, Mrs. Morton, relict of the late Thos. Morton Esq. of Castletown, Queen's county.
At Cloughprior, county Tipperary, William Woodward, Esq. aged 63 years.
On Tuesday, the lady of Wm. Robinson, Esq. Wm. Street, Waterford
On the 18th inst. at Aberdeen, in the 34th year of his Episcopate, the Right Rev. John Skinner, Primate of the Episcopal Church of Scotland
On the 12th inst. Vice Admiral Sir W. Essington K. C. B. He has not been employed since he served under Lord Cam- bier, at Copenhagen.
Lately, in France, by a fall from a carriage, Captain H. Marsh, of the British Artillery.
Last Thursday night, at Kiltinane Castle, county Tipperary, at the advanced age of 90 years, Edward Cooke, Esq.
At Doonass Glebe, on Monday morning, Elizabeth, daughter of the Rev. Charles Massy aged 2 years.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES.— JULY 30

Wheat,	1s. 10½d. to 2s. 0d.	} per stone per cwt. per Cwt
Oats,	8d. 8½d
Barley,	00d. 6d.
Potatoes,	2½d. 3d.
Butter.—First Quality,	£4 6s. d.	} per cwt.
—Second Ditto,	3 13s. d.
—Third Ditto,	3 8s. d.
—Fourth Ditto,	2 16s. d.
Flour.—First Quality,	(None)	} per cwt.
—Second Ditto,	27s. to 29s. d.
—Third Ditto,	22s. - 24s. d.
—Fourth Ditto,	15s. - 17s. d.

Cork Market, July 25.—Price of Butter to the Merchants, 1st quality, 86s.—2d, 82s.—3d, 70s.—4th, 60s.—5th, 50s.—To the Country—1st, 76s.—2d, 72s.—3d, 60s.—4th, 50s.—5th, 40s.

Waterford Market, July 26.—Butter, 1st quality, 90s. Flour, 2d quality, 48s. to 50s. per bag—Wheat, 32s. to 35s. per bbl.—Oats 10s.—Barley, 9s. to 10s.—Beef, 4d. to 6d. per lb.—Mutton, 5d. to 6d.—Pork, 3d. to 4d.

London Corn Exchange, July 24.
We had but few fresh arrivals this morning, but owing to

PROMPT PAYMENT.
RECEIVED from the Norwich Union Assurance Association by the hands of Mr D. C. ROOSE, their Acting Member, the sum of Four Hundred Pounds, being the full amount of my demand against that office, for the loss I sustained by fire, which Cotton Mill and Machinery, at Carrumony, in the county of Antrim, on the night of the 9th of May last. Paid to me without deduction of Agent's Fee.

Belfast, July 25, 1816.
As Agent to the Norwich Union Fire and Life Insurance, I beg to return you my grateful Thanks for the prompt and equitable manner you proceeded to investigate the loss I sustained by the burning of my Mill, on the night of the 9th of May last; and also for your paying me the said loss, as ascertained by your respectable Gentlemen in the Cotton Spinning Trade.
I am, Sir,
Your obedient humble servant,
JAMES HENDERSON.

Belfast, July 23.
To the above four mentioned Gentlemen—
Charles Leppers,
James Bowser,
Robert Read,
— Scott, Esqrs. of Belfast.

For their polite and patient investigation of the above loss and ascertaining the fair demand of the sufferer, the Office take this opportunity of returning their most sincere acknowledgments.

Losses and demands against this Office will be always settled when necessary, in the same honourable manner by the decision of the disinterested and respectable neighbours of the claimant.

Chief Office for Ireland,
2, Capel Street, Dublin.
D. C. ROOSE, Acting Member.
FIRE—A saving of 50 per cent.
LIFE—10 per cent lower than other Offices, and the first Bonds of 20 per cent. have been issued.
Policies issued before June, 1816.
JAMES KELLY, Agent, Limerick.
Limerick, July 30.

A long Established Situation for Business.
THE HOUSE No 2, Broad-street near Baill's Bridge, will be Let with a Fine, or the Interest in the Lease, which is for ever, will be Sold For a Grocer, Tobaccoist, Chandler, or Hardware Merchant, it is a most eligible standing.
Application to be made to MICHAEL GAVIN, Jun. Esq.
July 29, 1816.

CHARITY SERMON.

A CHARITY SERMON will be preached on Sunday, the 4th of August, in the Cathedral, by the Rev. H. NEWMAN, in aid of the Funds of the Protestant Female Orphan School of this City. In this House of Mercy, Twenty destitute Females are dieted, lodged, and educated, and at proper periods, apprenticed to respectable individuals. The institution has already sent out into the world many valuable Members of Society.—Above a year and a half has elapsed since any appeal has been made to the Public in its behalf—the funds are now completely exhausted, but the Governesses trust that the liberality of a discerning Public will continue to a Charity so well calculated to promote the cause of Religion and Morality; that support they have hitherto bestowed upon it. Benefactions, from those who cannot attend, will be received at the Banks of this City; by the Clergy of the Churches and Chapels; and at the OFFICE of this PAPER.
Limerick, July 29.

ROBBERY and REWARD.

NOS 430, 432, 433, 434, 435, 436, 437, 438, & 439, Nine Five Pound Post Bills, of the Bank of Ireland, payable to H. B. WRAY dated and accepted and the 20th July, 1816. The numbers as stated above, have been STOLEN from the New Barracks.—Payment having been stopped at the Bank of Ireland, renders them of no use to the Holder.
Any Person giving information which will lead to a discovery of the Robbery, will receive from the ADJUTANT of the 50th Regiment, or at the Bank of Messrs. BRUCE & Co. a Reward of TEN POUNDS.
July 30, 1816.

As the Magistrates of the City of Limerick WILL NOT HOLD A COURT FOR REGISTERING FREEHOLDERS