Amherst, Esq. of the Bengal civil establishment .-- On the 29th of Oct. at Cheltenham, aged 52, universally lamented, Major General Sir George Holmes, K. C. B. of the Bombay Establishment. The military career of this gallant officer is too well known to require a distinct notice at this time. It will be sufficient to observe that during the long period of 86 years passed in the service of the Honorable Bast India Company, he distinguished himself by his zeal, activity, and unremitting exertions in many arduous campaigns, and in the highest commands, on all occasions receiving the thanks of his Government, and enjoying the confidence and esteem of his fellow soldiers .- On Thursday evening last was interred Mrs. Taylor, wife of Mr John Taylor, a respectable woollen manufacturer, of Dewsbury. A short time before her death, Mr. Taylor became unwell. His indisposition gradually increasing, he became seriously ill for two or three days prior to her interment, and while the neighbours were in the act of taking the body of his deceased wife out of the house, to the grave, he also became a corpse ! !- On Wednesday last in Clonmel, Mr. Richard Wilson, late proprietor of the Great Globe Inn, in that town.
