

enterprise would meet and swell the Seditious proclamations were to be and communes which they should of the witnesses has clearly proved ed. In consequence, Pierre Bagneres e been condemned to death. Pierre gue and Paloumat, have been acquitted, been condemned to imprisonment for #### EVER HOSPITAL.

ention of the public to the following of this truly valuable Institution, we the highest respect and veneration for r those through whose benevolent aid, to the present day.—Its importance to city is too obvious, too well known, to

It is not to those who labour under mpir, that it is more particularly necessands who, were it not for the existence Charity, would fall victims to contaort is read, we are confident, that no one assistance, will withhold his mite, in he association of the terms SICK and it a certain sensation which finds an easy which is not altogether shut out from Self-preservation has an imperative check the progress of pestilence for the must do so for our own!!—We should there are those who will do so from a know some, and could name them, who stealth, but blush to find it fame"—On ld wish to say much but our limits pointed to superintend St. John's Hos-ent upon them, at this period, when the claim so much general interest, to submit d report of a charity which has long been rdinary degree, to alleviate the sufferings, ogress of contagion among the lower ut, which they conceive, may now justly ntified with the best interests of society. ment to their fellow citizens, the com-will be their duty to exhibit to them ure of the prevalence in this city, to a sease, the most formidable, perhaps, to can be exposed—but, as the institution ted not only to afford relief to individresting the progress of contagion, to give lic, the detail, however painful in its to prove beneficial in its results. Before, ed to offer any view of the existing situament, the committee consider it expedient, the circumstances to which it owes its this exposition will shew that the charity on any idea of speculative good, but o existence, and has been extended to its usive action, by the fatal prevalence of wer classes of this populous city.

D, Lady Harstongue, an individual whose associated with whatever is amiable in y affected by the miseries which the poor afflicted with fever, and aware, from her e with their habits and their wants, that isease seizes an individual of a family, communicated to the remainder; assisted persons, undertook to establish a recepuring under fever. This asylum which at two beds for patients, speedily obtained, g care, so much general consideration, the public was extended to it, and it has nnings grown into a magnitude, to which, dged utility of the charity both to nd to society at large, it never could is institution, the first established in the been the work of individuals, has, for-ed a more imposing rank—its kindly cognised by the legislature—their bounty it, and it at present contains fifty six convalescent patients, and in a building th the fever wards, but as much insulated ll admit; there are 13 beds for venereal hese diseases exclude them from admis-y Infirmary. The establishment of this nsists of two physicians and a resident keeper and her servant, and a porter.— pport are—£100 per annum, received £500 by presentment from the County to palliate their misery, or means to would have been the consequence? Can the ratio in which disease would have extended, be either calculated or conceived? Can the loss of human life be estimated or understood?

Before they conclude, the committee must call the attention of the public to the happy success which has attended the medical practice of St. John's Hospital, in 1815 the proportion of deaths in the fever cases was but one in 17, and several of those which terminated fatally did not, at their admission, afford the least ground for expecting a favourable issue. In 1816 the practice has been still more successful.— Although from the crowded state of the house circumstances must have been peculiarly unfavourable to recovery, the proportion of deaths in fever has been in this year only one in 21½. This result, the committee conceive, must speak more, not only for the skill, but also for the conscientious assiduity with which the medical attendants, in defiance of personal risque, have discharged the important trust confided to them; of the general care and attention of the servants of the house, and of the benefit conferred upon this city by the institution they superintend, than any thing they can add; they, therefore, submit the cause of humanity to the public, in the confident hope that the subscriptions to St. John's Hospital will, in future, be as liberal as they have hitherto, they lament to say, been sparing and insufficient.

On Sunday, Mr. T. Rice, of Mount Trenchard, arrived at Shannon View, near this City, from England.

Yesterday, in consequence of an arch in the centre wall of a corn store in Upper Wm. street, giving way, the lofts, corn, and several feet of a double roof fell in, and melancholy to state, one unfortunate man who had not time to escape, still remains under the ruins.

At an early hour on Sunday morning last, a young man rather genteelly dressed, fell into the river at the Oyster Dock, and though a number of boats were near, he unfortunately perished.

We learn, with much satisfaction, that a nightly watch, of ten men, has been established in St. Mary's Parish, which will contribute much to the safety of the inhabitants, who were before entirely exposed to the danger of frequent and unwell-come visits from nocturnal marauders.

The Lord Lieutenant and Duchess of Dorset have desired that all persons attending the balls and dining rooms the ensuing season, shall appear in dresses of Irish Manufacture.

Congratulatory Addresses have been prepared to present to his Royal Highness the Prince Regent, on his late fortunate escape, by several parishes in Dublin, and many of the provincial towns in England and Ireland.

ERRATUM—In the hurry of getting to Press, in a part of last publication, the 17th line was left out of our leading article. It should read thus:—"Lord Castlereagh states the reductions to amount £6,501,000, leaving £18,373,000, to be raised for the supplies of the present year."

EXPORTS.

Diana, for Greenock—1,334 brls. oats, R. Rodger—Sybel, for London—505 brls. 137 tierces pork, E. Ryan & Sons—100 bales 246 cwt. bacon, 3 hhds. 27 cwt. lard, Mark & Co.—50 tierces pork, 160 firkins 80 cwt. butter, J. & S.
Phelps—75 firkins 37 cwt. butter, Willington & Co.

MARRIAGES.

Yesterday morning, at the Cathedral, by the Right Rev. the Lord Bishop of Limerick, James Willington, Esq. eldest son of Jonathan Willington, Esq. of Castle Willington, Co.
Tipperary, to Sarah, eldest daughter of John Mark, Esq. of the House of Mark, Fisher, & Mark, of this city—Immediately after the ceremony, the happy pair proceeded for Castle Willington, to pass the honey moon.—Same day, by the Rev.
Richard Walsh, George C. Hodges, of Buttrane, Co. Clare, Esq. to Jane, eldest daughter of the late Wm. Hodges, of Old Abbey, in this co. Esq.

DIED.

Yesterday, suddenly, of an apoplectic fit, at her son in law's house, (Mr. Bold, Thomas street,) in the 73d year of her age, Mrs. Lucy Ffelan, relict of the late John Ffelan, Esq. of Kilcoleman, in this co. a gentlewoman who through a long life and many trials, displayed in an eminent degree every christian virtue.

Cork Market, Feb. 14—Butter, to Merchants—90—86 80—74—72—To the Country, 80—74—66—64—60.

Exchange on Friday—Dublin on London 10½ per cent.
LIMERICK PRICES.—Wheat 1s 0d to 3s 3d. per at Barley, 1s. 4d to 1s. 5d—Oats, 1. 5½ to 1s. 6d.—Rape seed, 25s. to 0s. per brl—Pork, 00s 0d. to 36s. 0d per cwt.—Flour 40s 0d to 43s. 0d. per cwt—Oatmeal 25s. to 26s 0d—Beef, 2d to 3½d. a lb, Mutton, 4d to 5d per lb—Tallow, 6s. 6d. to 7s. 8d. per st.—Potatoes, 3d to 3½d. per stone.—Flax, from 3s. 8d. to 4s. 1d. per
l. Butter—94. 84. 74. 64.—Whisky 12s. 6d. per gal.

best quality, which he will sell at a very moderate profit, for Ready Money.

CLARKE will be as usual well assorted in the CABINET AND UPHOLSTERY LINE, Every Article of which, being Manufactured under his immediate inspection, on the most Improved Plans, and of the best materials, he feels no hesitation in engaging them equal if not superior to the Manufacture of any other House in the Kingdom.

Limerick, Feb. 18. 1817.

DIAMOND.

THAT Beautiful Weight carrying Horse, bred by the late CHARLES CREED, Esq., will stand this Season at Altamira, within 6 miles of Charleville, 8 of Mallow, and 1 of Lisacrol, at 2 Guineas each Mare and 3s. 4d. to the Groom, who is accountable.—He was got by Old Diamond, dam Attalanta by Friar (Theanes) Shepherdess, by Saip, Regulus, Crab, Childers, Basto, &c. He won over £1000 of public money, for particulars see Racing Calendar, and is now in perfect health and spirits.

Good Grass at 6d. British per Night.

Feb. 18, 1817.

M'ALPEN,

HABIT MAKER,

Gentlemen's Fancy Dress and Military Tailor, DENMARK-STREET,

GRATEFUL for past Favours, begs leave to acquaint the Nobility and Gentry of Limerick, that in consequence of the exorbitant Prices demanded for Clothes Making in this City, he feels it his duty to apprise them of the fair Price they can have their Work done for, and in the same style as now worn in London and Dublin, at the following Rates, Ladies' Fashionable Habits.... 9s. 9d. to 11s. 4½d.

Pelisse and Box Coats each ..... 6s. 6d to 7s. 7½d.
Gentlemen's Clothes per Suit..... 13s. 0d. to 15s. 2d.
Do. Box Coats..... 6s. 6d. to 7s. 7d.

Orders directed to him as above, dispatched at the shortest Notice.

Feb 14, 1817.

N. B An Apprentice wanted.

TO THE

Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Freemen of the City and County of the City of Limerick.

GENTLEMEN,

UNCONSCIOUS that I could have been so unfortunate as by any act of mine to have forfeited the confidence you have so repeatedly placed in me as your representative. I venture to solicit a continuance of it at the next Election, with the most lively gratitude for the favours you have already conferred upon me.

Depending upon the zealous attachment that has been so conspicuously evinced by my friends upon every trying occasion, I am in no ways dismayed by the pompous threats that have been held out by my adversaries, nor will I be driven by them out of the course I have hitherto steered in Politics, which has been rewarded by the approbation of a great majority of my constituents, whose good opinion I am most anxious to retain—as little successful in creating any apprehension, has been the underhand artifice of a Noble Family; who, to forward their own views are, with other men's purses, vainly endeavouring to restore a fallen interest, and to seduce me into a compromise of that Freedom of Election they affect to be so solicitous to establish.

With a firm reliance upon the exertions of my friends, I shall hail the day of trial as a day of triumph to them, disregarding of the silly boasting that has been so profusely indulged in, and which must only weaken the cause that it seeks to advance. I shall take an early opportunity of paying my personal respects to you, and assuring you, indivi-dualy, of the sincere regard with which I remain Gentlemen, your faithful and obliged humble servant
C. VEREKER.

Limerick Nov. 3 1816.