LIMERICK—TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1817

Government are determined that the staff of the Irish Militia should be employed to do duty where detachments of the line, in consequence of the late reduction, have, or are to be withdrawn. Orders have accordingly been issued this week to the following to repair to the undermentioned stations, and we understand that the order extends to several other corps :— Staff of the Tipperary Militia, from Clonmel to Roscrea.—

the shrouds that were above water, to save themselves from instant destruction. That which prevented their return made it impossible to send them any succour; and, melancholy to tell, they were on the wreck on Friday morning, without having had any sustenance or aid since they first reached it.— The vessel sunk about nine miles from the shore.

The town of Ennis was visited on Friday last, between three and four o'clock with a tremendous thunder storm.— The spire of the church was struck by the lightning with such force, that stones of an enormous size were driven against the pier end of the bridge, and others carried over the church enclosure.—The loss is estimated at £300, two cows were killed, in a stable belonging to Mathias O'Brien, Esq. M. D. which joins the church yard.

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital has received from S. E. Rice, Esq. three guineas, his annual subscription to that charity.

INDIAN JUGGLERS.—Last night, a large and Fashionable Audience were highly gratified by the finished and elegant performance of these celebrated Orientals—Our expectations, however considerable, were more than answered—the deceptions were executed with an expertness, never equalled, and the entire received the most unbounded applause.—In every place, where they have already exhibited, they were liberally supported, and we make no doubt, that their visit to Limerick will not be unproductive, when the interest of the Performance is known. There are now but five nights more—An overflow is expected this Evening.—We were agreeably entertained in the intervals, by the attendance of a Military Band.
