

re us a full report, which (sixteen columns) of the night in the House of Commons. Mr. Grat- committee was negatived, up- majority of 24; the num- 1—Noes, 245. In contem- mind naturally reverts to e same cause in 1813. On ch, in that year, Mr. Grat- committee (the precise mo- ight) was carried by a ma- 34—Noes, 224. On Tues- e went into the Committee, n proposed a Resolution, of providing for the remo- id military disabilities af- tholics, which Resolution jority of 67; Ayes, 186; e given to bring in a Bill, the 30th of April, the bill 1 read a first time. On it was read a second time vision; the numbers being, 3; Majority for the second on the 24th, the House ee on the Bill, when the mission of Roman Catho- of Parliament, under cer- lost upon a division; the st the clause, 251; for it, It will be seen in the above ends of the Catholic Cause 813, and that their major- ion in that year, exceeded displayed by their oppo- ght. We (Globe) regret ve trust, when explained, it originated in accidental or ances, and not in change uses, calculated to discou- nate success.

OF MR. HERRIES.

in the House of Commons. forward his motion relative f Mr. Herries to the Audi- List, with a salary of he was permitted to retain 1,350 a-year from the of- Chief. The Hon. Mem- on of censure on this ar- after a debate, was nega- f 51.

RETURNS.

Orders of the House of

into Great Britain	Tons.
Hope, for the year	40
.....	*
.....	349
.....	1,512
.....	1,631
year were destroyed by fire.
on the Cape of Good Hope, for 1813 .....	£26,270 8 11
.....	63,199 14 4
.....	73,719 8 6
.....	58,981 16 6
were destroyed by fire.
from Great Britain to the Cape
the year ended 5th January,
.....	£215,384
.....	222,498
.....	171,519
.....	214,096
land, derived from rum, cocoa,
uce from the West Indies, states
4, at .....	£178,661 13 10½
.....	179,153 1 6
.....	140,890 5 3
of cotton piece or woven goods
ain was in the year ending 5th
ber of yards.....	66,616,538

the success of a Conqueror in establishing and defending his Colony, among Savage Tribes, without ever drawing the sword; the goodness of the most benevolent Rulers in treat- ing his Subjects as his own children; and the tenderness of an universal Father, who opened his arms to all mankind without distinction of sect or party. In his Republic it was not the Religious Creed, but personal merit, that entitled every member of Society to the protection and emoluments of the State."

DEATH OF THE REV. MR. MEEHAN.

We regret to say, that the Rev. John Meehan; P. P. of Cross, was killed a few nights since, by a fall from his horse. He had been called on at a late hour to visit one of his parishioners, and while engaged in ad- ministering comfort to the afflicted, some person loosened the girths of his saddle; on his attempting to get on horseback, the saddle turned, and the animal got restive, and gave him a kick on the head, which we are sorry to state, caused his death in a few hours. Clare Journal.

No 7,895, was on Wednesday week, drawn a prize of £20,000.

A dreadful accident occurred at Newport, in the county Mayo, on Friday last. While a number of res- pectable inhabitants were collected in order to wit- ness the performance of a private play the joists of the floor gave way, by which the whole audience were precipitated in horrible confusion. Three were killed on the spot, and no fewer than an hundred in- jured in a greater or less degree. We are in possession of the names of many of the sufferers but decline, for the present, to give them publicity.

We make the following extract from the Glasgow Chro- nicle, of last Saturday:

"The Rev. Neil Douglas, accused of uttering seditious matter in his prayers, lectures, sermons, and declamations, has been indicted to stand trial before the High Court of Justiciary on the 26th inst. The first wife of the Rev. gentleman is said to have been a cousin of the late Lord Melville."

Mrs. Solicitor General Bushe gave a grand ball and supper on the 9th instant, at her house in Ely place. There were present, the Bishop of Kildare and Mrs. Lindsay, Lords Aylmer, Allen, and Mount Charles, Sir George Beckwith, the Hon. Mrs. J. Bushe, Mrs. P. Crampton and Mrs. J. Crampton, Colonel and Mrs. Ready, Colonel and Mrs. Brown, Colonels Pelly and Doyle, Majors Belli and Campbell, Messrs. Cramptons, Lindsays, Saurins, &c. &c. &c. The ball was opened by the elegant and accomplished Miss Bushe and Lord Mount Charles, after which Quadrilles commenced, which lasted until supper was served, which consisted of all the de- licacies of the season, and displayed the usual refinement and taste, which distinguishes Mrs. Bushe's family.

Cork, May 12.—We are highly gratified at the success which attended the eloquent appeal of the Hon. and Rev. Ludlow Tonson, in Christ Church, yesterday. The collec- tion we understand was over £260. This aid was most timely and necessary, and we trust the sum will be increased by farther donations. Fever is very prevalent now in this city, and they who endeavour to check its progress should be literally supported. We have in the higher circles to lament some deaths of respectable individuals carried off by its malig- nity, and in the lower walks the desolation and contagion would have been excessive but for the existence of the House of Recovery. The collection yesterday, was equally credit- able to the preacher and to his congregation.

Communication between Cork and Limerick.—We understand that the Post Masters General have it in contem- plation to meet the wishes of the Merchants and Citizens of Cork and Limerick, and the intermediate towns, to start the Mail by Horse Post from Limerick, immediately after the arrival of the Dublin Mail Coach (say half past 3 o'clock, P. M.) which will arrive in Charleville about seven o'clock; from thence it is intended to have an escort as far as Mallow, where it will remain for the night, and start from thence the following morning, so as to reach Cork about 9 o'clock.

Mr. Lockett, Student at Law, was committed on Wed- nesday, by the Lord Chancellor, to the custody of the War- den of the Fleet, for having clandestinely married Miss Ed- wards, a Ward of Court.

Value of the Export of Provisions, from the Port of Waterford, for the year ending 30th of April, 1817.

2,845 tierces beef	at 100s.	£14,925 0 0
1,017 barrels beef	— 70s.	3,559 10 0
915 tierces pork	— 120s.	5,490 0 0
9,017 barrels pork	— 80s.	36,068 0 0
275,631 fitches bacon	— 30s.	413,446 10 0
103,219 cwt. butter	— 80s.	412,876 0 0
13,307 cwt. lard	— 60s.	39,921 0 0
78,737 barrels wheat	— 40s.	157,474 0 0
295,311 barrels oats	— 20s.	295,311 0 0
42,494 barrels barley	— 22s.	46,743 8 0
27,252 cwt. flour	— 40s.	54,504 0 0
8,703 cwt. oatmeal	— 25s.	10,878 15 0
8,586 cwt. bread	— 20s.	8,586 0 0
17,204 live pigs	— 50s.	43,010 0 0
Total .....		£1,542,093 3 0
April, 1816 .....		1,181,239 2 0

inst. at Lady's Abbey, near Ardhan, county of Tipperary, between Daniel White, Esq. of Ballydrinan, and Lieutenant Humphrey M. Freestun, R. N. The latter gentleman waited an unusual length of time to receive his adversary's fire, even after the signal had been frequently repeated; and then, this gallant young officer, in a truly noble and manly style, dis- charged his pistol in the air. His conduct drew forth the admiration of all; and it must be ever a source of pleasure to his feelings, that he desisted from firing on the father of a numerous and most amiable family.

On Saturday night, about the hour of 11 o'clock, five fellows entered the house of Lieut. Hartshorn, late 2d vet. bat. on the lands of Clounlong, South Liberties of this city, and took thereout a gun and sword, a quantity of wearing apparel, a watch, silver spoons, and some bacon. On Mon- day, a woman of the name of M. Mahon was detected pledg- ing one of the spoons—on her being brought before Alder- man Watson, he had her house examined, and a quantity of the stolen articles found therein. Her husband, Michael M. Mahon, was, after a long pursuit, taken into custody, and immediately confessed his having been one of the party who committed said robbery—another man named Patrick Kelly, was so closely pressed that he stripped off part of his clothes, and swam across the river at the island, and for the present has escaped. In the evening, the Alderman having received some further information, dispatched a peace officer, who appre- hended two men named James Claucy and Patrick Griffin, in a house near the new barracks, where he also discovered the gun and sword which had been taken out of Mr. Hart- shorne's house. The fellows are fully identified, as also the property found on them.

BIRTH.

At Killeen Glebe, the lady of the Rev Wm. Forde, of a daughter—At Lymington, in Hampshire, the lady of Captain Edmund Lyons, R. N. of a son—Lady Elizabeth Paek (wife of Lieut. General Sir Denis Paek) was safely delivered of a son and heir, on the 5th inst.

MARRIED.

At Kilsberry Church, John Spiller, of Omsgh, county of Tyrone, Esq. to Jane, third daughter of the Rev Robert Thompson, of said county—Captain H. G. Edwards, 1st of the 27th regt. to Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the Rev. Alexander George Stuart, of the Glebe, near Dungannon.

DIED.

In Cork, Spread Nash, Esq.—Thomas Deane, Esq. one of the burgesses of that city—Mr. Patrick Goold—Mr Wm. Maultby—Mr. John Mills, printer, & Mrs. Rebecca Gorman, relict of the late Michael Gorman, of London, Esq. and daughter of Phillip Stackpole, Esq. formerly a merchant of said city—At his seat, Hanover hill, near Macroom, John Harding, Esq.—Francis Twiss, of Thornhill, county Kerry, Esq.—At Poulton House, near Marlborough, in the 86th year of his age, Lieut. Colonel Baskerville, who, after serving with distinguished reputation in the 30th regt. under the Marquis of Granby, in Germany, and then in Ireland and the W. Indies, retired to Wiltshire, where he fulfilled for up- wards of 30 years, the duty of an upright and most impartial magistrate—At Monmouth, Cornelius Townsend, Esq. late of Bridgemount and Drumulty wood, county Cork—At Fittodrie, Scotland, Mrs. Knight Erskine, wife of Lieut. Col. Knight Erskine—At Croom, much lamented, the wife of Mr. M. O'Flaherty—On the Grand Parade, Cork, Miss Anna Harding—This morning, at his house in William street, after a lingering illness, which he bore with the most christian patience, Mr. Luke Rowe, apothecary, most deservedly lamented by all who knew him—On Wednesday, at Hermit- age, the seat of his brother, Thomas Keane, Esq. son of the late P. Keane, Esq. of Nutfield.—This gentleman at an early age entered into the navy, in which he attained the rank of Lieutenant; his constitution, from a service of twenty years, became enfeebled and enervated, and after braving danger in every quarter of the globe, and receiving many honorable commendations from his superior officers, he returned to his native home a short time since, and his demise we regret to say, took place on Wednesday, as we have stated. In him the service has lost a zealous officer and his family and friends, have to lament him as one whose amiable qualities made him endeared, and whose friendship was undeviating. On Sun- day last, at Shannon View, near this City, Edmond Henry William Cecil Rice, the Infant Son of Thos. Rice, Esq. of Mount Trenchard.

Immense Wealth

STILL REMAINS IN THE

LOTTERY WHEEL.

And which must be all divided amongst the Public, on TUESDAY next, the 20th inst.

BEING THE LAST DAY OF DRAWING.

IT CONSISTS OF

2	-- of --	£20,000
4	-- --	2,000
4	-- --	1,000
6	-- --	500
8	-- --	200