 Beside several other sums for the like benevolent purposes.

This conduct requires not the aid of panegyric, it sufficiently eulogizes in itself the genuine feelings of a benevolent heart, which, in this time of universal distress, extends the hand of pity to relieve the wretched and famishing multitude, instead of following the too prevailing custom of pomp, pageantry, and expensive entertainments on such occasions—We are happy in pointing out this young Lady as a pattern worthy of imitation, and we have no doubt, that her other virtues and accomplishments will ensure her, at all times, that most desirable object, the unqualified approbation of an admiring World.

In the list of Donations for the Relief of the Poor, that of D. F. G. Mahony, Esq for £20 16s. 8d. also merits our most unqualified approbation, and does the highest honor to the liberality & goodness of his heart.

The unceasing activity of the Gentlemen who have undertaken the collection, has an indisputable claim on the meed of public applause—that within our power to give, trivial as it is, we offer. Messrs W. Ryves, G. E. Bruce, R. Westropp, and H. W. Baylee, have been unwearied in their assiduity to procure donations, and the success they have met has encouraged them to continue their exertions in the sacred cause of Humanity—the relief of our numerous Poor, now reduced to the lowest misery, thro' alarming sickness, poverty and want.

John Waller, Esq. of Castletown, in this county, has, with the liberality which has ever marked his character, handed to the Treasurer of the Fever Hospital, Twenty Guineas for the use of that charity, which constitutes him a governor for life. The Committee thankfully acknowledge the receipt of a box of lemons from Mr. T. J. Cripps, of Shannon-street, and from Mr. A. Swinburn, five dozen of cider, for the use of the sick.—There is no Institution of greater utility than this, and none needs assistance so much, from the great number of patients.

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital, gratefully acknowledges the receipt of Twenty Guineas, from Miss Daxon, per the Dean of Limerick—this donation constitutes this very benevolent lady a governess of that charity for life.

The Treasurer of the Fever Hospital has received from George Maunsell, Esq. five pounds for that Charity, in addition to his annual subscription of three guineas.

The Treasurer of the Sick and Indigent Room-keepers, has received from George Maunsell, Esq. five pounds for that most useful Charity.

Last night, a fine young Bull, the property of Thos. Henn, Esq. was stolen off the lands at The World's End, Castle Council.

NAPOLEON BONAPARTE.

This name will never fail to attract notice, and considering the conspicuous situation which he so long held in the political world, it is no wonder it should—Soon after his marriage with Maria Louisa, she desired to have a correct Portrait of him taken, which was accordingly done, by one of the first masters of the Italian school—This Picture has undergone the inspection of the connoisseurs in the art, both on the Continent and in England, and is allowed to be a most exact representation—as it has arrived in town for exhibition, its novelty, and the moderate price of admission, will not fail to pay the proprietor well for his visit to our City.

Extract of a letter to one of the Committee of Independence, in this City:—

London, Wednesday, June 11, 1817.
 "The Committee have agreed to present their Report this night.—It is to be made imperative on Mayors to sit at stated periods, for fair, open registry—Thus we have Triumphed!"

MR. TUTHILL,
 BEGS leave to inform his Friends, that the Writ of Election has been transmitted to the City Sheriffs.

Yesterday, as a man, named Patrick Nash, shoemaker, was conveying to the Hospital, in a chair, he fainted from excessive weakness, which being discovered by the men, they took him out for the benefit of air, and supported him to an entry in Mary street, where he instantly expired.

Yesterday, a subscription was entered into by the Mungret street association for the interment of a poor man, four days dead, who was laid by the wall of the new Market House. The spirit which actuated this association in this instance, and in contributing to the relief of the family of the deceased, will, we hope be felt by others.
