

...and the body at length an straw!—Is there any practices?—Or will any

...gentlemen have entered game until after the est from injury. uesday se'nnight at the & Co. Bristol, which —The damage is esti-

...Bristol a few days since, ompleted her voyage in rom was made in little h coaches has been fined outside—The law in this extremely just. always have presented a lieutenant expressive of from this country.
ading, notwithstanding sure has been adopt.
number of patients and observed that parate the sick from quity, that number

...patients have been awry—Of them 112 each sex visited with 4th dragoons, ap-examination of the to Capt. White's eloquent and argucourt martial will received the sanction

...of the House of Inary was unanimous-Asylum.
ly hour, the watch-a man driving two g him where he got the sheep which are Gate. The same stopped a suspicious nd on putting some orse round and gal-g sounded the hue Messrs. Stein and was stopped and is which, no doubt was

...with timber, arrived ictou, Nova Scotia
Garstin 15th regt.
I prisoners in New-pe, but their plan

...g the report of the ble resignation, of His Lordship sat bar insolvent cases, and spirits, as proof his temper and upon the judicial ayer.
son has refused to office which would ico for the dignity s Burton, Esq. of h spoken of as the d Judge Osborne, an information of
by Mr. O'Connor, reen street, Dublin who escaped from is apprehended on n the act of drivnd lodged in gaul.
the following not day of October
t five per cent.
e half year's inteinstant; together

"Dublin, Sept. 3, 1817.
"SIR,—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, inclosing a resolution of the Meeting of the Roman Catholics of the County and City of Cork, in which they have been pleased to express their thanks to me for the part which I took in Parliament in their behalf. I beg to assure you of the sense I entertain of the unexpected honour they have done me; and I request your acceptance of my acknowledgments for the obliging terms in which you have conveyed it.
"I have the honor to be,
"Sir,
"Your most obedient humble servant,
"HARROWBY."
"Thos. S. Coppinger, Esq. &c. &c.
Leemount."

FASHIONABLE WORLD.

This morning, Baron Sir Wm. C. Smith, arrived at Broderick's Hotel, in this city, from Mount Prospect, the seat of the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Baron, and soon after set off for Dublin.

Major General Airey arrived at Swinburn's hotel, on Tuesday, on his way to the Lakes of Killarney.

The Marquis of Sligo, Mr. James Browne, high sheriff, Capt R. Browne, and Mr. Saunders, of the 89th regt passed through Castlebar, on Saturday, from Westport House, to the Curragh Meeting.

Lady Louisa Connolly and suite, Viscountess Howarden and upwards of forty other passengers arrived in Dublin on Friday, from Holyhead.

The Right Hon. Colonel Bagwell, M. P. left London on Wednesday se'nnight for his seat Merfield, county Tipperary.

Sir Francis Burdett's reply to an invitation to a public dinner in Liverpool, was, "that he felt very much flattered, but feared that he would not be able to return by Liverpool, as he wished to see as much of Ireland as possible, and had not much time to spare.

The Marquis of Anglesey is returned to his seat, Beaudesert, Staffordshire, from a tour.

Mr. T. Moore (Anacreon) has arrived in London from Paris, where he enjoyed the kindest reception from the literary, social, and fashionable world—a tribute justly due to his eminent genius and poetical talents.—He is immediately expected to join the Kilkenny Theatrical Corps, to which his musical and dramatic powers so greatly contributed on former occasions.

Mr. Tierney, M. P. is recovering from his long and severe indisposition.

The Master of the Ceremonies of the Kingston Rooms Bath, has resigned, and three candidates for the vacant throne have already declared themselves.

A person, tired of the prolix stories of a great traveller, said to him, "Sir, you have doubtless become acquainted with Geography in the course of your voyages." "Sir," answered the learned traveller, "I have never been so far!!"

It has been remarked that nine British Dukes have died within the last nine years, viz. Portland, Devonshire, Grafton, Queensbury, St. Albans, Dorset, Norfolk, Marlborough and Northumberland.

Madame Catalani is in treaty with Mr. Waters, for an engagement, next season, at the Opera House, London.

Mrs. Edwin, after a short provincial tour in England is expected to visit Paris, for the purpose of seeing the French comedy.

The report of Mr. Charles Kemble having quitted Covent Garden Theatre, is unfounded.

THE DUCHESS OF DORSET.—We feel pleasure in bearing testimony to the exalted worth of her Grace. Since her arrival in Ireland, she has patronized many charitable, many laudable institutions; she has laboured to relieve the wretched, to comfort the unhappy, to shelter the unprotected. We cannot, therefore, but express our sorrow at the departure of so amiable, so estimable a personage; one, who has so often and so bountifully contributed with heart and with hand, to alleviate the sufferings of fellow creatures in distress.—Dublin Chronicle.

The Honourable Hayes St. Leger, is elected a Burgess, and Charles Broderick Esq. eldest son of the Archbishop of Cashel, a common councilman of the borough of Bandon.

Up to the very hour of Sir J. Duckworth's dissolution, he persisted in transacting the affairs of his public duty in person—although his last dispatches was scarcely legible. His zeal was unabated, however, and the gallant veteran may very justly be said to have fallen at his post. He was in the 70th year of his age.

A young man of fashion, who lately came into the possession of £10,000 per annum, is said to have lost the whole lately at hazard.

"From the sublime to the ridiculous there is but one step"—Thus, we hear of a monument to the immortal memory of the "Hero of the Nile" and of a mausoleum for the Marquis of Anglesea's "leg."

EPIGRAM.

On the Metallic Heels worn by our Modern Beaux.
Both leamed and dunces are vain it is said, (Each by turns oft berrays what he feels)
And they who no notice can gain by their heads, ...days last week, and the appearance of the country is still very favorable. Some barley and oats have been reaped in this county, and the quantity of potatoes fit for use, exceeds, we have no doubt, the whole of last year's crop. During the greater part of Monday there was a thick mist, and this morning again we had some heavy rain, but there appears to be no reasonable cause for any fear that we shall not receive abundantly the fruits of the earth in due season.

KILKENNY.—The whole of the past week, with but few occasional interruptions, has been highly favourable to the pursuits of the husbandman—In one morning, 100 labourers were engaged—The reapers declare they have not handled better produce those five years—The grain is clean and firm as can be desired.—The oats is particularly superior.— Potatoes also turn out much better than was expected as to quality and quantity, and, if we consider, the breadth that was planted this year, there is little fear of scarcity.

BIRTHS.

In Waterford, the lady of Dr. Alman of a daughter—In Cheltenham, the lady of the Knight of Glin of a daughter—In Cheshire, Lady Elizabeth Keith Heathcote of a daughter —On the 7th inst. at Sir C. Coote's Ballyfin, Lady Cremorne of a son and heir—On Sunday, at his house Pontine Buildings, the lady of the Rev. Winham M. Fitz Gerald, of a son—Tuesday, the lady of William Ryan, Esq. of Ballymacknogh of a son

MARRIAGES.

On the 4th instant, at Cheltenham, Sir Francis Ford, Bart. to Eliza, daughter of the late Henry Brady, Esq. of this City —if amiability of manners, sweetness of disposition, & a mind stored with every accomplishment can add any thing to conjugal felicity, Sir Francis is likely to be the happiest amongst the happy—The Rev. T. Surridge of New Ross, county Wexford, to Martha Jane, daughter of the Rev. Wm. Maffatt, of Card, county Fermanagh—In Derby, the Rev. John Ebans, A. M. to Mrs. Walsley, relict of the late Rev. R.
Walsley, of Walsley Hall, Staffordshire—In Bath, R. Nap-pier, Esq. to Mrs. W. Staples, eldest daughter of Sir James Stewart, of Fort Stewart, county Donegal—At Poole, Dor-setshire, R. S. Haly, Esq. Royal Navy, grandson of the late Wm. Haly, of Ballahaly and Castle Treasure, county Cork, to Anne Gee, only child of Wm. Young, Esq. of Poole—Capt. W. Rhodes, 19th Dragoons, to Anne, only child of Peter Smith, Esq. of Bramhope—In the county of Cork, at Frimont, Dennis McCartie, of Dinagh, Esq. to Ellen, daughter of the late J. Lynch, Esq. of Kilsallen—Mr. James Nunan to Miss Barry, both of Cork—Thomas Exham, Esq. to Jane, third daughter of the late Wm. Robinet, Esq. both of Cork—In Dublin, on the 8th instant, by the Rev. Richard Wolseley, the Rev. Clement Wolseley, only son of the late Clement Wolseley, Esq. and nephew of Sir Wm. Wolseley, Bart. of Mount Wolseley, county of Carlow, to Maria, only daughter of the late Francis Fetherston, Esq. of White Rock, county of Longford—Yesterday, in Eunis, John Griffin, Esq. to Mrs. Sullivan, relict of Dr. Sullivan, of Killarney.

DEATHS.

In Chelsea, Mrs. A. Morgan—On Chapman Common, John Smith, Esq. of London, banker—In Dublin, Alicia, wife of Joseph La Fanu, Esq. and sister of the Right Hon. R.
B. Sheridan—In Broad street, Mr. Wm. O'Shaughnessy, druggist and apothecary—his kindness to the poor was remarkable, and his loss to them is irreparable—he was universally respected and is as generally lamented—In Rochester, Jemina Cox, daughter of the late Rev. H. Cox, archdeacon of Bedford—In Newtownforbes, Samuel Crawford, Esq.
—In Dublin, the wife of Mr. N. Mahon, bookseller—In Amsterdam, the Dowager Marchioness of Sligo, after a few days' illness—she was a daughter of the celebrated admiral, the late Earl Howe—The Rev. George Stone, Rector of Hapton, Suffolk—In Tinda, America, C. Best, Esq.
M. D.—Near Dandalk, the Rev. D. Magrath, of a fever, many years Rector of the Parish of Ballymascanlon—On the 5th inst. the Rev. Doctor Maginness M. Ardle, P. P. of Dundalk—In Essex, R. Frost, Esq. late of the Co. Dublin Militia—In Cork, the Rev. Giles Lee, Rector of Kildor-rery—Mr. John Roe, chandler, of George's Quay—On Tuesday, Owen Madden, a respectable merchant of that city —Mrs. Margaret Villet.

TO BE LET,

From the Twenty-ninth Instant,
The House and Extensive Concerns, On Charles's Quay, 278.
At Present occupied by JOHN JAMES, & ROBERT HOGAN.
It stands unrivalled in Limerick, for situation and accommodation for any Business.
Apply to JOHN WALLACE, Esq. 46, William St.
Also to be Let, a good HOUSE, with a STORE and Two Yards, in rear of Denmark street, occupying a valuable Lot of Ground.—And a large Concern and Yard, well enclosed, at the back part of the Assembly House Apply as above.