DEATHS.

On the 1st inst. at Weymouth, after a short illness, Mrs.
 Berners, relict of the Rev. Henry Berners, of Hambleden, Buckinghamshire, brother of the late Charles Berners, of Wolverstone Park, Suffolk, Esq. and mother of Mrs. Mathews of this city—She was a lady possessed of the most amiable and benevolent disposition—in the social circle, age lost its deformities, diffusing around her that gay, that playful animation which could assimilate itself to the joys, or participate in the sorrows of others.

Wednesday morning, of a fever, at Grange, in this county, the Rev. Standish O'Grady, (whose appointment to the living of Tullybracky, we announced a few posts back) third son of the late Standish Grady, Esq.—The decease of this amiable young gentleman, an event so painful as premature, has involved his highly respectable family in the deepest affliction—His attention to the poor in this neighbourhood, was particularly assiduous, and probably in one of those visits of mercy, he caught that illness which hurried his transit to a better world, and deprived society of one of its brightest ornaments.

At Castlehacket, county Galway, Denis Kirwan, Esq. brother of John Kirwan, Esq. of said place.

In Ennis, Mrs Gorman, wife of Mr. Thomas Gorman, woollen draper, of a typhus fever.

Tuesday last, Mrs. M'Mahon, wife of Henry M'Mahon, Esq. and daughter of the late Donatus M'Mahon, of Ballyglass, Esq.

At Cheltenham, Miss Martha Taylor, youngest sister of the late Sir Simon Taylor, Bart.

Near Worksop, Sir Thomas Wollaston White, Bart.

To his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Limerick.

MY LORDS AND GENTLEMEN,

I BEG leave to offer you my most sincere thanks for the distinguished Support and increased Majority which you honored me with yesterday, which I shall ever recollect with gratitude and pride.

I feel great pleasure in observing, that no Magistrate on this occasion polled contrary to his former vote, as I must confess.
 Mr. TUTHILL's close reasoning on this point is not recon-cilable to my feelings or understanding as I never could suppose that a pledge to support me at an Election for the Treasurership could be redeemed by supporting me at an Election, which Mr. TUTHILL tells you was void—nor can I see the distinction between a null Election and no Election at all.—Once more, Gentlemen, accept my warmest thanks, and be assured, that

 Your most grateful,
 And obedient Servant,
POOLE GABBETT.
