

Wall on the table to have him examined, Mr. Monsell, started up, —When Mr. Monsell was called on he was supported by me & my three times—I do not say I ever told him I was a younger son, a voice, call on me, and I will be for you—there are many of who supported him—I should observations, but that I found course which, as Chairman, he ed—if there was an equality of ave given his opinion, & voted stood up, and said “Mr. Wall—now Mr. Wall’s examination against me as for me—No man on the table to be examined, the manner in which Mr. Wall—After I had received the At. in, I sent my friend Mr. Farnell, quision signed by four magis. to convene a meeting of the ill refused—he might as well ry he would not do what they Wall, I will bring him before bench, to account for it—he con. be request of some individual, desire of four magistrates— use of the meeting on the pro. all examined, not only on this, feeling also, —Should you place which I aspire to, I hope I shall repose in me to your entire that if he had not been more old not intrude on the meeting, at I was supported by him and d to his having voted for me, assestion himself—one friend port me, but when Mr. Tutbill had promised Mr. Poole Gab. object Mr. Tutbill for you to be, “I want it for my brother” art I took as chairman, I acted right to do, and shall always do likes it or not—I thought it or perhaps, improper, to have this reason I opposed it, and so now.

believed he had never told Mr. Treasurership for his brother—acherous, and Mr. Monsell’s e—in 1815, he canvassed me what, said I, sure John Gab. on, and I would be sorry to see f he William and I have pro. he two Mr. O’Grady’s—Then, yself”—but it is not a natural younger brother should seek lder—neither does he want it more money than he has occa. children, and he is a bachelor.— that at the time, I had not king for the representation of en offered it, I would not have declare that I do not want the other, or for any other person. he conceived Mr. Wall had curse he had adopted, and he dination as he thought it per. as it was, in his opinion, an he character of the man. Mr. ou the advertisement of the ll read it again, in order to —[Advertisement read]—Here ce of this meeting, by stating, quision signed by the above id in his capacity as Clerk of

If a writ were issued for the for the City of Limerick, in he Sheriff’s natify to the free- hat an election will be held informality in the return of a be upset by a Committee of would they be authorised in til they receive instructions ll did not see the Attorney in pursuance of a requisition Magistrates, he signifies his officer of the Court, on the sition. No, although the ven his grave opinion on the adversary’s ball having entered the abdomen, above the right hip. We are however happy to add, that in the opinion of the Surgeons in attendance, this day the symptoms appear of a favorable nature.

The Mercantile Society Rooms, just opened at No. 2, George’s street, under the regulations recently published, are daily receiving additional subscribers. The rooms are tastefully arranged, remarkably well lit, and the selection of English and Irish Papers, and other periodical works, have given satisfaction.

At a meeting of the Subscribers to the Limerick Mercantile Society, the following Members were elected as a Committee for the ensuing year:—Wm. Moore, Thomas Taverner, Jas. Kelly, John Arthur Meade, John Hogan, William Evans, Benjamin Roche, and Wm. Creagh, Esqrs.

LIMERICK HISTORICAL SOCIETY.

We are extremely gratified to find, that this invaluable Institution is likely to be continued with increased spirit.— It has received the promise of the support of some gentlemen who hold a high place in the literary world; and we are confident that the Public will not withhold their patronage.

LIMERICK MARKET PRICES—Wheat 2s 5d to 2s 10d Oats 12d to 13d; Barley 16d to 16½d—Butter 100, 94, 84, 74—Flour 2d, 30s to 34s 1½d; 3d, 26s to 28s; 4th, 18s 6d to 20s per cwt—Potatoes 2½d to 3½ per stone—Mutton 5½d to 6d Beef 4½d to 5d per lb.

VERAX, in answer to A PROTESTANT, shall appear in our next.

English Publications, just imported, at Mr. P. J. HOGAN’s, Patrick-street:

M. MATHEWS

Will dispose of a very extensive collection, amongst which are Ireland’s Hogaith, Skinner’s History of Peru, many plates, Rainsforth’s History of St. Domingo, many plates Dway Bible, fine copy, Hume and Smollet’s History of England, Johnson’s Lives and Works of the Poets, 8 vols, Smith’s History of the County and City of Cork, with maps, plans, and plates, new edition, Russell’s History of the Plague, Phillipart’s Life of Bernadotte, Crown Prince of Sweden, &c. &c.

Speeches in Parliament of the Right Hon. Richard Brinsley Sheridan, just published, with a fine portrait—This Work contains the only correct copy of Mr. Sheridan’s celebrated Speeches on the Begum Charge—Speeches which excited the wonder of mankind, and drew forth the following observations from Messrs. Burke, Fox, and Pitt:

Mr. BURKE declared it to be the most astonishing effort of eloquence, argument, and wit, united, of which there was any record or tradition.

Mr. FOX said, “all that he had ever heard, all that he had ever read, when compared with it, dwindled into nothing, and vanished like vapour before the sun.”

Mr. PITT acknowledged that it surpassed all the eloquence of ancient or modern times, and possessed every thing that genius or art could furnish to agitate and controul the human mind; uniting the most convincing closeness and accuracy of argument, with the most luminous precision and perspicuity of language; and alternately giving force and energy to truth by solid and substantial reasoning; and enlightening the most extensive and involved subjects with the purest clearness of logic and the highest splendor of rhetoric. Every prejudice, every prepossession, were gradually overcome by the force of this extraordinary combination of keen, but liberal, discrimination; of brilliant yet argumentative wit.

New Novels just published,

Parisn Priest in Ireland, or History of Mr. O’Brien, 2 vols. 12mo. Lavinia Fitz Aubin.

Catalogues, 5d. each, to be allowed in the first purchase.

paid MIDWIFERY.

Mrs. SARAH KEITH, alias ALEXANDER, RESPECTFULLY acquaints her Friends and the Public, of her removal from Bridge-Street to No. 7, Shannou-Street, opposite Mr. Thomas Quinlan’s Coach Maker, where she will receive any commands, and attend in Town or Country, at the shortest notice.

She returns sincere thanks for the encouragement she has received; and avails herself of this opportunity of acknowledging the repeated and late satisfactory Testimonials she has received from the Lying-in Hospital, Dublin, through Doctor Douglas, and other most respectable Professors, (who resided there during her practice in the year 1810) and which she can produce for the satisfaction of the Public.

LORD VISCOUNT LISMORE, IN THE CHAIR.

It was unanimously Resolved, that the following Address be drawn up and presented to GEORGE HARGROVE, Jun. Esq. Surgeon, late Royal Horse Artillery.

Clogheen, Oct. 31, 1817.

MY DEAR SIR—We have received your resignation as Medical Superintendent to the CLOGHEEN DISPENSARY, with the deepest concern, and most sincere regret, and assure you, that if you had determined on remaining amongst us, we would have endeavoured to promote your wishes and best interests.

To your exemplary care and attention, as much as to your skill, our families are in general indebted for some instance of recovery. The Country in general must regret your departure, for at all times, but more particularly in the late trying season, your exertions for the benefit of a very numerous poor, have been unceasing, and merit the grateful thanks of the people and the approbation of the Committee who have conducted the affairs of the Dispensary.

It is due to your character as a Gentleman, and to your ability as a Professional Man, to assure you, that, in departing from our neighbourhood, you have our best wishes for your success at your new destination, which we feel confident must ensue; and you carry with you the heart felt gratitude of the people and poor of this country.

We remain, my dear Sir,
Very sincerely yours,
LISMORE.

12
7

- ROBERT CROKER,
- JOSUA SUTTON,
- HENRY PALMER, Clerk,
- DENIS PHELAN,
- EDWIN TAYLOR,
- HENRY O’BRIEN,
- DENIS M’CRAITH,
- FRANCIS O’BRIEN, Treasurer,
- SAMUEL GRUBB, Secretary.

To which Doctor HARGROVE replied as follows:—
Roscrea, Nov. 6, 1817.

MY LORD AND GENTLEMEN—I beg you will accept my most grateful acknowledgments for the handsome mode you have adopted in approving of my conduct while I superintended the Medical Department of the Clogheen Dispensary; base, indeed, must the man be who would not volunteer his exertions at any time, for the sick poor, but more especially at a period when it has pleased Divine Providence to visit the land with a calamitous disease, and where hunger, contagion, and death, were so frequently seen on the same wretched floor.

Most ungrateful should I be, did I not return you my very sincere thanks, for the kindness, hospitality, and attention, I have uniformly experienced from you during my residence at Clogheen,

And I have the honor to be,
My Lord and Gentlemen,
With great respect,
Your obliged, faithful, and
Humble Servant,
GEORGE HARGROVE, Jun.

BIRTHS.

On Tuesday night, the lady of Col. Stamer, Carnelly, co Clare, of a son and heir.

Mrs. Newton, of Warwick square, London, of a son. At Beivoir Park, co. Down, the lady of Robert Ratson, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIAGES.

Yesterday morning, at George’s church, by the Rev. W. D. Hoate, Henry Bowles, Esq. of this city, to Sarah, daughter of the late John Tierney, Esq. of this county, and sister to Dr. Tierney, Physician to his Royal Highness the Regent—John Ryan, Esq. of Ballyciskeen, co Tipperary, to Miss Meany, of Tramore.

Tuesday morning, by special license, by the Rev. Richard Lee, Burton D’Arcy, Esq. co Clare, to Anna Maria Swayne, niece to Major General Swayne, and grand-daughter to the late collector of Cork.

DEATHS.

Last night, of a fever, at his seat, Ballinacerriga, in this county, Richard Dawson, Esq.—his remains passed through this city this morning for interment at the family vault, Bunratty, co. Clare.

This morning, in Nicholas street, Mrs. Eyres, wife of Mr. Thomas Eyres.

Saturday, in Mary street, Mrs. Tubridy, wife of the late Mr. Thomas Tubridy.