A PROCLAMATION.

Prohibiting his Majesty's natural born subjects from serving or enlisting or entering themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war, raised or set forth by persons exercising or assuming to exercise the powers of Government, in certain provinces and parts of provinces in Spanish America, or in the military forces of his Catholic Majesty employed in Spanish America, or in his said Majesty's ships of war:—

GEORGE, P. R.—Whereas there unhappily subsists a state of warfare between his Catholic Majesty and divers provinces or parts of provinces in Spanish America; and whereas, it has been represented to us, that many of our subjects have, without our leave or license enlisted, or entered themselves to serve in the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or intended to be raised or set forth, by persons exercising or assuming to exercise powers of Govt. in such provinces or parts of provinces, and that divers others of our subjects are about in like manner to enter and enlist themselves; and whereas such practices are highly prejudicial to, and tend to endanger the peace and welfare of our crown and dominions, we do therefore hereby, by and with the advice of our privy council, strictly charge and command all and every of our natural born subjects, of what degree or quality soever, not to serve in any such military forces or ships of war as aforesaid, and not to enlist or enter themselves to serve therein, and not to go beyond the seas, or embark, in order to serve, or with intent to enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; and it is, at the same time, our royal will and pleasure, and we do by and with the advice aforesaid, hereby also strictly charge and command all and every of our said subjects not to serve or enlist, or enter themselves to serve in any of the military forces or ships of war raised or set forth, or to be raised or set forth, by his Catholic Majesty, and not to go beyond the seas, or embark, in order, or to the intent to serve, or enter, or enlist themselves to serve in such military forces or ships of war; it is nevertheless our royal will and pleasure, that nothing herein contained shall be deemed or taken to prohibit any of our subjects, who are engaged at the time of the date of this our proclamation, in serving in the military forces of his Catholic Majesty, without our leave or license, from continuing to serve therein, provided that our said subjects do not serve with the military forces of his Catholic Majesty when employed in Spanish America; and we do hereby, by and with the advice aforesaid, strictly require all our said subjects duly to conform to our commands herein contained, under pain of our high displeasure, and the utmost forfeitures, penalties and punishments, to which by law they will otherwise be liable.

Given at our Court of Brighton, the 27th day of November 1817, in the 58th year of our reign.
