This morning an inquest was holden by Alderman Phillip Russell, on view of the body of Patrick M'Inerney, who was drowned at the slip in West Water Gate, on the night of the 10th ult.—The verdict of the jury was—"Found drowned."

On Friday night last, a dreadful fire broke out in the mills and stores of Mr. Lynch, at Kilmore, in this county, it raged with such fury, that every attempt to check its progress proved ineffectual, the entire were consumed—We understand there was no insurance effected on the premises or stock—We regret, this circumstance much, for Mr. Lynch was a gentleman very deservedly esteemed.

After stating the decision of the Court of Common Pleas, in the case of the assignee of Michael O'Neill, a bankrupt against the Sheriffs of the city of Limerick, (which appeared in our paper of Friday) the Limerick Chronicle says—"After the verdict was announced, the defendants lodged a bill of exceptions, which was taken in their favour—It should be understood, the Sheriffs paid over the money to the plaintiff after the execution was executed."

TO CORRESPONDENTS:

METHODISM—We have received a communication on this subject, signed "DETECTER." It shall appear in our next.

BIRTHS.

In London the lady of Colonel Hughes, of a daughter. —In Edinburgh, the lady of Lieut. Colonel Wardle, of a son.—At Baltinglass, the lady of J. Waters, Esq. of a daughter.—At Sapperton, county Waterford, the lady of Wm. Moore, Esq. of a daughter.—Friday, at his seat near Quinsboro', near this city, the lady of Peter Low, Esq. of a daughter.

DEATHS.

At his house in the Tontine, last night, William Ryves Esq. of Ryves Castle, in this county—a gentleman of the most polished and elegant manners—to the greatest natural abilities were added all the advantages of a finished education—his birth and fortune placed him in the highest ranks of society, and he supported that station there with that ease and dignity of deportment which characterize the Gentleman—He was a perfect master of the classic authors, French, Spanish, and Italian were quite familiar to him, and he studied the Belles Lettres, and other polite accomplishments with equal success—Of music he was particularly fond, and was confessedly one of the first amateur performers on the violin—He was a steady disinterested friend, a man of high and unblemished honor, a feeling and benevolent landlord, and will long be regretted in every circle in which he moved—

In the Isle of Wight, Mrs. Rebecca Grose, last surviving sister of the late Sir Nash Grose, aged 74.—In Dublin, Mr. Michael Byrne, of that city, merchant.—This truly benevolent, cheerful, and hospitable gentleman will be long regretted by the companions of his social pleasures, and the objects of his generous bounty.—In Dublin, Mr. Michael Whelan, woollen draper, late of the firm of Byrne and Whelan.—

In Cork, of a fever Mrs. Purcell, relict of the late Mr. Philip Purcell.—Friday night, at his lodgings in Catherine street, of a typhus fever, Michael Cudmore, Esq. of Ballyclough.—At Youghal, Dr. Jackson.—At Batavia, Major Piercy, 53d regt only son of the late Jeffery Piercy, Esq. of Cork.—In Dublin, aged 86, Mr. George Bouham, late printer to the Irish House of Commons.—At Bombay, Charles Anderson, Esq. 4th officer of the Charles Grant, Indianman, and son of C. Anderson, Esq. of Bristol.—In Bristol, M. Yeatman, Esq. many years an eminent surgeon of that city.—In Galway, Mr. Thomas Cahill, postmaster of that town.—Last night, in Clare street, Mr. Alexander Blood, formerly an eminent pawnbroker in this city.

NORWICH UNION

ESTABLISHED 1797,
Being the only Office in the Empire, on the EQUITABLE PLAN.

THE best Recommendation of the system of this Office is to submit the proof of its important advantages having been realised to Insurers, for the last 20 years, facts and proofs are the true answers to its interested maligners.

FIRE.

At the NORWICH UNION, the Public are effecting insurances against Fire, for one half what they pay every other Office; the assured get a return of premiums at the expiration of 7 years, a few names out of 20,000 persons who have received this return are given in.

Proof.	Henry Birley & Co.	Pm Pd.	Amt. Recd.

Joseph Craue, Esq. Liverpool,	147 0	73	10 0
Chancellor and Master of the University of Cambridge.	69 0	34	10 0

Who will then pay other companies 20s. for what they can obtain at the price of 10s. at the Norwich Union!

LIFE.

At the NORWICH UNION, in the Life Department, the Rates are 10 per cent. lower, and all savings are added to the policies, so that an insurance of £1000 will produce £1500 or even £2000, without paying any additional premium.

PROOF—Mr. Joseph Jesson, of West Bromwich, Worcester, insured his life for £1000 and his family have just received £1,154 4s.!!! although only insured eight years—In Ireland, Colonel Fenwick effected an Insurance with the Cork Agent, in 1814, for £3000, he died in 1817, his widow last Sept. received the £3000 and £46 13s. over and above, being the addition of the first bonus.—Can any other Office boast of thus benefiting the Public? No—they will receive your Premium and pay only the sum insured; and in a long life, the premium paid may be more than the amount

The NORWICH UNION is the only Office now on the admired plan of the EQUITABLE, which is established solely for the advantage and economy of the public.

The capital exceeds £300,000, which at the ratio employed by the Companies of £10 for every 100l. subscribed would be equal to Three Millions Capital.
