MISS TAYLOR

RESPECTFULLY informs her friends and the pub- lic, that her School will open after the Christmas Holidays, on Thursday the 5th of January next, and she takes advantage of this opportunity, to express her gratitude to all those who have so warmly and ef- fectively supported her Establishment; that she is sensible of the kind interest they have evinced, she hopes ever to prove, by close attention to the Children entrusted to her care. The progress that many of them have already made in the various branches of their Education, she is happy to find, has met with the approbation of their respective parents and friends; and according to her original intention, that nothing on her part should be omitted to pro- mote their improvement, Miss TAYLOR, has, as an assistant, a lady, a native of England; who having kept a School for some time in Dublin, and having educated several young ladies of the highest respecta- bility in this county, her ability as a Teacher, is well known, and also her talent of instructing in Drawing, and Painting on Velvet, in a superior style. Another assistant has also been engaged, whose peculiar office is the charge of the younger children, and to see that the strictest neatness and regularity is kept up among the young ladies. Miss TAYLOR will, in future, limit her Establishment to Twenty Boarders, and Twenty Days Pupils. Limerick, Catherine-Street, Dec. 23.
