

ates of the county of Cork, have und James Delacour, Esq. to be Treasunty, in the room of his father. son, Esq. Barrister at Law, is elected Dublin Grand Canal Company, vice d.

Admiral Sir Richard Bickerton, Bart. the vacancy of Lieut.-General of the s, occasioned by the death of Admiral and that he will be succeeded as Major-corps by Rear-Admiral Sir George J. the Lords of the Admiralty. ng are the only Admirals at present in -Admirals Sir Edward Thorborough, and Viscount Exmouth, Plymouth.— Pickmore, Newfoundland—Rear-Admi-
-Penrose, Mediterranean; Sir David
-Scotland; Sir Richard King, East Indies; Hallowell, Cork; Sir Charles Rowley, W. J. Hope, Leith; Sir Home Popham, n Harvey, Barbadoes; Robert Pamplin, of the Cape of Good Hope.

CLERICAL APPOINTMENTS.
s—The Hon. and Rev. Edward Knox, of Down, vice Annesley. The Hon. to Kilina, vice Burton, L. L. D. e Rev. Mr. Pomeroy was stated to be of St. Patrick's, Dublin, the election y Mr. Ponsonby, and at present remains H. Elrington, son of the Provost of ge, Dublin, is appointed by the Primate, of Carlingford.

Cork.—Henry Joseph Heard, Esq. L. e Vicar General, vice Rev. J. Keany, ed. E. Greest, Esq. to be register.
os. Bridson, Esq. to be register. ohn Radcliffe Esq. L. L. D. to be Vicar e Burton.

Mr. Hay, Presbyterian Minister at Derry, Agent for dispensing the Regium Donum. eury the Lord Lieutenant's Chaplains, ointed:—Hon. and Rev. John C. Talbot* Chapel and First Chaplain; Deans of h, and Cloyne,* Rev. Messrs. Lambert,* rens,* Guinness, Wynne, Gough, Dunn, ishop Le Fanu, Dawson,* Champagne, er,* Kearney,* Wolseley,* Stephens,* ford,* and Barry.*

ed * are new and instead of Rev. Messrs. w, Lloyd, Campbell, French, Staples, deliffe, Fox, and Dawson.

ght some villain had a shot at one of urton's highly efficient Police, stationed e stores saved in the wreck of H. M. S.
Miltown Malbay, and we are concerned the wound is of so desperate a nature as e poor fellow of the use of his left hand. burton has committed to Ennis Juff, ah, Thomas McCoy, and James Redneth, art of the plunder of his Majesty's Sloop y wrecked on the Co. Clare Coast, in on.

is convicted at Cashel and Clonmel under ion Act, arrived in Cork on Wednesday, r Botany Bay.

y night, four Ewes heavy in Lamb, the wo poor Cottes, were killed on the lands Co. Clare, and the fat and carcase of one ng fire broke out in Maiden-street, News Co. a few nights back, which threatened to the whole town; but we are happy to was in a short time subdued without any y, by the exertions of Edward Carte, Esq. detachment of the 77th Regt. quartered anded by that worthy and highly efficient and Aveing.

a female infant was found dead in an house in Nicholas-street—It was marked

CO. SAL.—The Lady of Colonel Sir Robert Chamberlaine Hill, of a son—At Malhoonagh, in this Co. the Lady of Joseph Newman, Esq. of a daughter—The Lady of Doctor Lebat, of the Lying-in Hospital, Dublin, of a son—At her father's house in Mallow-street, the Lady of Nicholas Keatinge, Esq. of a daughter.

MARRIAGES—In Dublin, Frederick Moore, Esq. Barrister at Law, to Hanna, only daughter of Alcorn Hone—At Drumkin, Andrew Allen Murray, Esq. of Monaghan, Barrister at Law, to Rebecca, daughter of the Rev. William Moffat, of Carr-house, County Fermanagh—In Wexford, Lieut. Hebert Newton, late of the 23d Regt. to Dorothea, daughter of the late James Gildea, Esq. of Cosslogh, Co. Mayo—Lieut.
George Gawry, R. N. to Jane, daughter of Michael Roberts, Esq. of Kilmoney, Co. Cork—In Dublin, John Asde, Esq. to Miss Williams—At Downderry, Co. Cork, R. Plummer Davies, Esq. R. N. to Anne, daughter of the late T. Bousfield-Herrick, Esq. of Shippool, in that County—At Monkstown Church, Surgeon Rumley, to Miss Maguire—Captain Charles C. Johnson, 85th Light Infantry, to Susan, daughter of Rear-Admiral Griffith—At Truro, in Cornwall, Captain Duncan Grant, R. A. to Cecilia, widow of the late Captain Bernard Wills—In Dublin, Mr P.
Byrne, of Francis-street, woollen draper, to Miss Jane Cahill—John Cooke, Esq. of Gurteen, Co. Tipperary, to Mary, daughter of the late Denis Murphy, Esq. of Mount-Pleasant.

DIED—On Sunday, after a protracted and painful illness, in his 35th year, sincerely regretted by all who knew him, Augustine Charles Fitz-Gerald, Esq. formerly of Dame-street, Dublin—In Dublin, W. Burton, Esq. of the Co. Carlow. He for many years represented that County in Parliament—Allen McCarthy, Esq. of North Main-street, Cork—The Rev. Doctor Miller, of Prospect, near Blackrock—Of typhus fever, the Rev. Daniel Colgan, P. P. of Londonderry and Tem-plemore—Surgeon McNally, of the Armagh Militia—In Clonmel, Oliver Latham, Esq. a Magistrate of the Co. Tipperary—In Belfast, Thomas Courtney, Esq.
Inspector of Stamp Duties—At Passage, Captain William Padmore—Peter Power, Esq. son of Hugh Power, Esq. of Ring, near Youghal—In Cork, Lieut.
Samuel Power, late of the 7th Royal Veteran batt.— At Kilkenny, Co. Dublin, Mrs. Dickson, relict of the late Stephen Dickson, Esq.—Jane, second daughter of Edmund Nugent, Esq. of College-green, Dublin—At Newchapel, Co. Tipperary, J. Sanders, Esq.—On H-nau's-quay, Mrs. Kirby, relict of the late Maurice Kirby, Esq.—Maynard Howell, Esq. many years Surgeon of the Carmarthen Militia—At Lisbon, Baron Onatila. He has left property to the amount of £15,000,000 florins. According to the direction of his will, his coffin was to be covered with gold, and fastened with a gold lock, the key of which, also gold, has been delivered to his next of kin—At Poonah, in the East Indies, Lieut. Connolly Robert McCausland, of the Horse Artillery—In Dublin, the wife of Andrew Denn, Esq.—On Wednesday morning, in Dominickstreet, Miss ~~Ellis~~ Parsons, daughter of the late Jos.
Parsons, Esq. Co. Clare—Yesterday morning, at his son's house, in this City, John Bolster, of Tullarboy, in this Co. Esq. His death was occasioned by the severe shock he received in the loss of his wife, who died a fortnight before of typhus fever. The neighbourhood they lived in will have to deplore the loss to this truly hospitable couple, whose house was always open to receive the stranger, and administer relief of the poor and needy—At Newcastle, in this Co. Mr.
Thomas Barnett; he has been for many years supported by one of the numerous annuities granted by Lord Viscount Courtenay to the poor on his estate—Of fever, Mr. James Carroll, of Bunnahane, Co.
Tipperary.

Exchange—Dublin on London—7½.
IRISH STOCKS.—Gov. Deb. 5½ per cent. 95½—Gov.
Stock 5½ per cent. 95½—Gov. Deb. 5 per cent. 105—Gov. Stock 5 per cent. 105—Grand Canal Loan, 5 per cent. 84½—Bank Stock —.

19.
WE do hereby C in payment, a l Shea, for £49 sterl. ist, for Rent which Landlord's Receiver, distrained for said R 16th day of January,

I do acknowledge the above Bond, in pa on the 29th day of N to the Landlord.—G day of January, 181

HENRY WATSON
late Firm of V 1st July, 1814, to the their Accounts, oth Immediately taken fo
All Accounts due 1814, to the 31st ation to HENRY W S, Rutland-street.

REPORT O
To the Annual M
The Society for

LIVERIE
IN the overwhelming our city, through death of food, succ almost exhausted nat low creatures, as the prevalled, and still suffer, aware of claims on their be withheld any increas subs of an estab consideration, and application of its lin should be productive to affording relief an fining its usefulness t Industrious Poor."

At that season, w means of providing at present, your as possible, to disp to every applicant, stockings, for which wanted, and such small pittance was admitted of it, or h the stockings, this extended to the rel pair were knit in a hands not admitting sor of the year, an operating against a
It has been decline

In addition to t bounty, your Com unabated attention to make up 277 con 239 of which have your recommendation the materials, maki every one of which paid to fulfil the ob And altho' it much of the Public