On Saturday last, as Lady Waller, Mrs. Poe, and Mrs. Pepper, (sister to Sir B. Bloomfield,) were taking an airing in an outside jaunting-car, near CloghJordan, one of the shafts broke, the horse took fright, and the Ladies leaped from the car. Mrs. Poe and Mrs. Pepper fortunately escaped unhurt; Lady Waller (we are sorry to say) had the cap of her left knee luxated—the coachman made every effort to stop the horse; in his exertions the poor fellow received three wounds in the hand, and had his left arm dislocated.—Mr. Ryan, Surgeon to the CloghJordan Dispensary, attended in a few minutes after the accident occurred, and happily succeeded in a speedy reduction of the dislocation.—We feel pleasure in stating, that Lady Waller is going on well—a quick recovery is expected.

On Saturday a man named Patrick Brien, for many years a resident in the cabin at the head of the Canal, fell in at the middle lock and was unfortunately drowned.—His body was taken up on Sunday.
