evening.

Yesterday the bodies of John Dillane, his sister the widow Costello, and her daughter, were found dead on the lands of Knockdrunroon, in this County .-As various reports are in circulation, as to the manner in which they came by their deaths, we abstain from entering into detail, until a report of the Coroner's inquest is received.

An application is made to Governmentally the Co. Tipperary Magistrates, so order the third part of the expendes under the Preservation Act, to be paid out of the Consolidated Fund.

Extract of a letter received in this city, from a person high in authority, at Gibraltar, dated the 7th February :

" The plague is going to the westward of Algiers, in which city, the daily deaths are reduced to fifteen, having been 250-the number of victims in that city alone, have been 10,000. Mr. Mac-Donald, the British Consul there and family, have been quite wellthey have been shut up in their house, and have had no communication with the Algerines."

In consequence of several outrages in different parts of this County, we understand that its the intention, to put the peace preservation act in force-this act wherever it has been introduced, has been found the most effectual to resist, and finally put down disturbances, as whilst it has the power of correcting the lawless rutian, it insures protection to the honest and industrious.

Last Thursday, an Inquest was held by John Ievers Carroll, Esq. Coroner, on view of the body of Peggy Barron, who was found dead on a part of the Demesne of Dromoland. It appeared to the Jury, from evidence given before them, that she was thrown over the demesne wall, by some person unknown, which caused

In consequence of a press of Advertisements, we give a SUPPLEMENT of EIGHT COLUMNS with our Publication of this day, containing the entire debates on the Army Estimates, and other Parliamentary intelligence, with several interesting articles.

We congratulate the public on the interest which many of our young Ladies take in their endeavours to improve the condition of the poor female children of this city. An establishment has been formed for the manufacture of straw hats and bonnets, under their management; the texture and finish of which, for excoed any thing of the kind before introduced into this city. They are disposed of at a moderate rate, and the institution deserves the support of the public. CHARITY SERMON.—We are extremely happy to observe that the sermon preached by the Rev. Richard Hayes, on Sanday last, in St. Michael's Chapel, in aid of the Female Poor School, under the direction of the Ladies of the Convent of St. Clare, proved exceedingly productive. Indeed, from the paramount utinty of the institution, and the proverbial generosity of our fellow-citizens, in the cause of humanity. we had augured most liberal contributions; but when we consider the distressed state of society, at the present moment, and the many openis that have already drawn largely on the purse of beneficent public; we confess that it is with more than ordinary pleasure we
