Jury of the County Wicklow, have un-derstandingly thanked to Mr. Critchley, their late his excellent conduct whilst in that prisoners left untried at the close of the at Dundalk, charged with the murder of family, will be tried by a special Com-missioner for that purpose, on the 30th inst. night several stables at the Island were broken and saddles—One Gentleman's horse was killed and returned yesterday, after being to death.

of Messrs Burk and Honan, Cork, was on Wednesday, a desk broken open and sixty books taken away. being Good Friday, the same was observed with every respect—the shops and public offices closed and divine service performed in several churches, which were attended by the regi-ment.

Important article, materially affecting the peace of this country, appears in our fourth page; it is very necessary to draw the attention of the House in Parliament to the subject, for which we hear that several counties in Ireland are assembling to represent the grievance com-plained of yesterday, some of the baskets of the which were taken away, and much injury sus-tained on low grounds.

White, 4th Dragoon Guards, has proceeded to present to the Commander-in-Chief a memorial in vindication of his conduct, in pressing a Court Martial on Quarter-Master Jolly, which we published a few days ago. The Dragoons expect to proceed to England.

of the 68th from Dublin is as follows: 1st division, consisting of two Companies, left Dublin on the 21st, and will arrive at Fermoy on the 23d. 2nd division, two companies march on the 17th, and will arrive at Fermoy on the 24th inst.—3d division, two companies march on the 18th, and will arrive at Fermoy on the 25th inst.—4th division, two companies march on the 19th, and will arrive at Fermoy on the 26th inst.—5th division, consisting in like manner of two companies, march on the 20th, and will arrive at Fermoy on the 27th inst. in which station the regiment will remain until transports arrive at Cove for their

of dividing the regiment, on its line of march into small divisions, is in consequence of the want to have them accommodated with barracks in the towns at which they halt, instead of being dispersed throughout the country, as heretofore, occasioned by the prevailing alarming extent of Typhus. The different Barrack Masters have received orders to provide every necessary article of bedding, fuel, &c. for the accommodation of Officers and men in readiness.

His Highness the Prince Regent has been pleased to name and on the behalf of his Majesty, to appoint Lieutenant-Colonel Sir James R. Colleton, Assistant Quarter-Master-General on the Staff of the Army stationed in Ireland, from the 25th inst. vice Lieut-Colonel Walker.

It is also stated that Colonel Sir James Colleton is to be stationed in the South Western District, until further orders.

His Highness the Prince Regent has been also pleased to appoint Brevet-Major Henry Grove, on the Staff of the Army, to be Assistant Adjutant-General on the Staff of the Army serving in Ireland, from the 1st of March inst. vice Lieutenant-Colonel Colquhoun.

It is also stated that Lieutenant-Colonel Colquhoun is to be stationed in Dublin. The 18th Regiment, except a detachment which has marched for Dorchester, is now established at Milford; and the 35th Regiment, Colonel Moore, at Hilsen, Fort Cumberland, and market in this city. The notorious offender, Thomas Gordon, has been apprehended this morning. He has been for the last three months in prison, on the charge of breaking open Stables, but dismissed on Wednesday week, for want of proper prosecution; the Sunday following he broke open the Stables of Mr. O'Brien—if such offenders are allowed to proceed with impunity, the City deserves to be the victim of their depredations.

The brig, John McCannon, from Belfast, with 280 cases of linen, and 25 passengers, was wrecked on the 30th Jan. off Virginia, crew saved.

The Sarry, Fame, and Sir W. Bensley, with convicts, arrived safe at Botany Bay, from England and Ireland, on the 10th June.
