London Corn-Exchange, April 13.
Although we had but a small supply of Wheat this morning, yet the arrival of a considerable quantity from abroad, caused heavy sale at last Monday's prices. Barley is full 1s. per quarter lower, and what appeared this morning went off slowly at that reduction. Beans being in demand for shipping sold readily at an advance of 2s. per quarter. Oats met ready sale ; and fine Corn is 1s per quarter dearer. In other articles there little or no alteration.

Dublin Markets—There was rather a small supply yesterday, and the market was rather quiet.
