DIED—At Jamaica, aged 21, Lieut. Charles Hudson Bigger, 61st regt. son of L. Bigger, Esq. of Dundalk—The wife of the Rev. Samuel Arnold, Presbyterian Minister of Narrow-water, Co Down—In Thomas-street, aged 65 years, after a very short illness, George Alps, Esq. Attorney; a Gentleman remarkable for integrity and correctness, and whose death has caused much affliction to his family and all who were in habits of acquaintance with him. No man more uniformly or more perfectly squared the conduct of his life, by kind and benevolent maxims. We do not know how we could pourtray his character more fully than in this short wholesome reference to the simplicity, justice, integrity, and sincerity in religion and morals, by which he was distinguished; and all these qualities he highly possessed.—In Mungret-street, on Wednesday, Mrs. Luddy—In Dublin, John O'Keefe, Esq. formerly of this City, brother of Major O'Keefe, 12th regt. foot—At Dungannon, aged 110. Mr. John Conroy—In Clonmel, Mr. Patrick Coman. Apothecary—and Mr. William Dillon—Miss Meagher, of Rathclough, near Cashel—In Tullamore, Mr. William Greene—The wife of J. Hamilton, Esq. of Leeson-street, Dublin—Mr. W. Seymour, late Quarter-Master 3d Dragoon Guards—At Bromley, Kent, Captain Rolland, of the East India Co.'s service—At Portsea, Lieut.-Colonel Thomas, late 28th regt. Barrack-master at Portsmouth—In London, Lieut.-Gen. Sir Albert Gledstones—At his uncle's, (Bat. Clanchy, Esq.) in Mary-street, much lamented, Mr. Bart. Cunningham—Yesterday, in Upper William-street, Mr. Francis Tench, coach proprietor—In Dorset-street, Dublin, Lieut. Thomas Francis, 81st regt.—At Sidmonten, Herts, Anne, daughter of Sir Robert Kingswill, Bart.
