

highly gratifying to perceive the quantities that are now flowing into our market from the different sources. Several boats were lying at the long dock for some days last night four additional boats arrived; the harbour also presents a number of boats chiefly laden with them and oatmeal. In consequence of this super-abundance, the price advanced considerably yesterday, and in all probability will continue to decline. The great reward given to the countrymen in bringing to market, by the Mayor, was his reward persons on the different roads and to town, both to aid them and prevent lag, must have the effect of keeping down the price to a moderate standard, and ensuring a regular supply. Indeed the accounts from all quarters agree that the country contains a redundancy of provisions, heretofore unknown at this we have always a pleasure in recording the removal of property from an absentee family to one residence at home becomes the source of individual happiness and public prosperity: it is a feeling we have to announce the purchase of Bouchier Wrey's estate, in the West of England, by Stephen Edward Rice, Esq. which was completed on the 30th ult. in London. The estate was held by the Wrey family from the time of the patentee in the reign of King James the first to the time of the present alienation.

On the night the house in Newenham-street, occupied by the Quarter-Master of the 93d regiment, was entered by five men, who deliberately laid up every article which they could lay hands on, and had them removed to the front parlour, for the purpose of throwing out of the window, and two women had been planted to carry off plunder, when fortunately the alarm was given from an upper window by the servant maid, and the ruffians made off.

Last week a farm-house on the lands of Grange, near Callina, Co. Tipperary, was maliciously set on fire and consumed.
